II. Skill Building Exercises

Students will complete 3 of the following activities:

1. Log your communication (face-to-face and technologically-mediated) for a 6-hour period of time. Record the sender, receiver [use category, such as family member, friend, rather than actual name of person], context, channel of communication, purpose of communication, and time spent in communication. In a 2-page report (typed, double-spaced), discuss the similarities and differences between face-to-face communication and technologically-mediated communication. Include your communication log with your report.
2. Create an identity collage using a 12 x 18 inch poster board to depict your self-concept. Represent your personality, experiences, interests, relationships, talents, strengths and weaknesses, ambitions, and ministry. In a 2-page report (typed, double-spaced), summarize your depiction of your self-concept and offer suggestions (at least 3) for strengthening your self-concept.
3. The impact of family experiences on our present and future is discussed in chapters 6-9 in Bozeman and Smith. Discuss the family of origin experiences that have shaped you. Assess your attention to family relationships and family matters in your family of procreation. Discuss similarities and differences in your family of origin and family of procreation. Your report should be 4 pages (typed, double-spaced).
4. A. Interview 2 persons (other than seminary students) that have been in ministry 5 or more years. Ask interviewees about the following: 1) their view of the importance of interpersonal relationship skills in ministry; 2) the challenges they have faced in ministry as a result of interpersonal relationship issues; and 3) their opinion of what seminary students need to know about interpersonal relationships skills. Submit a typed summary of each interview. [1 page, typed, double-spaced per interview]

B. Based on your interviews and the topics discussed in the Interpersonal Relationship Skills class, what interpersonal relationship issues do you anticipate being most difficult for you in ministry? How can you prepare now to address the issues that you anticipate in the future? [1 page, typed, double-spaced]

The skill building exercises are due on 10/27/15, 2 p.m. (CST). The grade for late submissions will be reduced by 10 points. No reports will be accepted after 11/03/15. [Submit in class.]

III. Personal Evaluation of Interpersonal Relationship Skills

In order to successfully complete the assignment, the following steps are necessary:

1. Assess your interpersonal relationship skills using the evaluation form attached to the syllabus. [3 typed pages]
2. Complete 8 interviews: two family members, two friends, two church members, and two community members. Utilize the forms attached to the syllabus. As an appendix to the paper, submit the name of each person interviewed, relationship category, and contact information (e-mail or phone number is sufficient). Do not include the name of any person in your narrative report. [3-4 typed pages]
3. Develop a detailed plan for strengthening your interpersonal relationship skills. Reference relevant course materials in your plan; be specific and include internal notation (e.g. Bozeman & Smith, p. 101). [3 typed pages]
4. The report should be written in integrated narrative form, typed double-spaced, and submitted in one document with a cover page. You may use first person pronouns in your report. Question-and-answer format is not acceptable for this assignment.

The report is due on 11/17/15, 2 p.m. (CST). The grade for late submissions will be reduced by 10 points. No reports will be accepted after 11/20/15. [Submit on Blackboard and submit a hard copy in class.]

Students will be assigned to groups. Each group will prepare and lead an in-class presentation on one of the following topics: culture and communication, assertiveness, decision making, and conflict resolution. The presentation will be 45 minutes and should be an interactive time, rather than a lecture.

Students will prepare a bibliography of fifteen resources, in addition to the textbooks. At least 7 of the resources must be dated within the past 5 years. Students also will prepare a teaching plan that includes the following: topic, primary goal, timing, objectives/learning outcomes, teaching activities with facilitator listed, and assessment. In addition, students should prepare at least two handouts pertaining to the presentation and should bring sufficient copies for the class on the presentation day.
