The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Purpose of the Course

The purpose of this course is to provide quality theological education for students in the area of disciple making the context of the local church.

Core Value Focus

- Doctrinal Integrity – Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. The doctrinal statements used in our evaluations are our Articles of Religious Belief and the Baptist Faith and Message Statement.
- Spiritual Vitality – We are a worshipping community, with both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word.
- Mission Focus – We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.
- Characteristic Excellence – What we do, we do to the utmost of our abilities and resources as a testimony to the glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
- Servant Leadership – We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us.

Annually, the President will designate a core value that will become the focus of pedagogy for the year. For 2015-2016 academic year that Core Value is Mission Focus.

Curriculum Competencies Addressed

This course will address the following curriculum competencies:

1. Interpersonal Skills: Understand how to build relationships with other ministry leaders within the local church.
2. Servant Leadership: Determine how the Senior Pastor, staff members, and lay leaders can serve one another while still providing the appropriate leadership required.
3. Spiritual and Character Formation: As a leadership team intentionally “grow up in all things into Him who is the head – Christ” (Eph. 4:15b, NKJV).

Course Description

The purpose of this course is to engage students in a comprehensive look at strategies, principles, aims, and procedures that facilitate qualitative and quantitative growth of the church (disciple making) through a small group ministry. Students will develop skills in assessing, planning, organizing, leading, and evaluation the ministry of a church which utilizes a small group strategy.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Understand biblical concepts for administration of the small groups in the local church, and analyze these administrative practices in terms of a biblical worldview.
2. Students will demonstrate administrative principles and practices to the planning, organizing, leading and evaluating the small group ministries of the local church.
3. Value the importance of the discipleship mandate given to all believers in Scripture.

Required Readings

The following texts and resources are required reading for class discussions and are to be read in their entirety unless otherwise specified.

Assignments and Evaluation Criteria

All assignments should be submitted on time via blackboard for this course. In the blackboard shell, click the “Upload Assignments” link to upload your work. Please note that every assignment that is uploaded is time stamped with the date and time of the upload.

Annotated Bibliographies (cognitive) – 20%

Create a three to four sentence single-spaced annotation for each of the course texts to meet the reading requirement. Each Annotated bibliography should contain the correct format as cited in Turabian 9.36 with the addition of the number of pages of the referenced work at the end of the citation. Each annotation that follows should contain of your appraisal and considerations on the text not just a synopsis of the text. Following the annotation, indicate whether or not you read the text in its entirety.

- Transformational Groups – Oct. 21st
- Small Groups with a Purpose – Nov. 6th
- Connecting in Communities – Nov. 20th
- A Different Kind of Trip – Dec. 4th

Exegetical Research Paper (affective) – 30%

Create a clear and concise eight-page research paper on small group disciple-making principles that can be derived from Scripture. The paper will consist of a synthesis and analysis of the pertinent literature/textbooks in light of the exegetical themes of discipleship throughout the Scriptures, and include eight principles for integration in a local church team ministry setting. (Always begin a research paper with the theological basis before entering into the philosophical concerns.) Pay close attention to the Assignment Formatting section of this syllabus! Due on Nov. 13th

Assignment Formatting

- Type this assignment according to Turabian format
- All papers must be written in third person and double-spaced
- Use 12 point Times New Roman font
- Use the same number of references as assigned pages
- Use correct spelling and grammar
- Use proper pagination
- Include your name on the cover page
- Staple assignments together as necessary or as required (no report covers please)
- Write the full assignment

Personal Statement of Disciple-making through Small Groups (psychomotor) - 30%

Students will develop a personal statement of disciple making through small groups for adults in the local church. Students should identify the biblical basis for several vital components of and the organization and development of the small groups. Consideration should be given to both an individual’s personal spiritual formation as well as the role of others in a small group setting. This personal philosophy statement will be guided by the following aspects:

1. Identify the biblical basis for the following aspects of Disciple Making in small groups.
 - a. Role of other believers – the Body
 - b. Use of God’s word - Curriculum
 - c. Work of the Holy Spirit – Spiritual Formation
 - d. The Glory and Worship of God – Goal and purpose
 - e. Missions and Ministry deployment – evidences of growth
 - f. The role of spiritual disciplines (bible intake, scripture memory, prayer, etc.)
 - g. The levels or depths of individual spiritual maturity (pre-conversion to maturity)
2. Organization, Management and development of the Small Groups
 - a. Training and recruiting leadership
 - b. Leadership development or mentoring
 - c. Birth and Multiplication group launches
 - d. Weekly schedule, meeting time and length
 - e. New believers assimilation in groups
 - f. Believer only or non-believers in groups
 - g. Child-care, children and student participation in groups
 - h. Role of video and technology in teaching small groups and accountability

The personal statement of “Disciple Making in Small Groups” should be a minimum of 5-6 pages in length, single spaced and organized by bullets and numbers in paragraph style. Other small group development aspects beyond those listed above may be considered in the development of the personal statement. Due Dec. 11th.

Classroom Decorum/Attendance – 20%

Participation/attendance is required for each conference session (Oct. 21 at 1-4 pm, Oct. 22 at 9-12 pm, 1-5 pm; Oct. 23 at 9-12 pm and 1-3 pm). Participation is required for every course session due to the interactive learning format of the course. A positive attitude can only enhance the learning experience. Therefore, for the purposes of this class, a positive attitude and participation are defined as productive and interactive engagement with classroom presentations and classroom dialogues throughout a full course session. You cannot participate effectively if you are not focused on the subject matter while in the classroom. Consequently, the student is expected:

- To come class with a constructive point of view, prepared to interact with the readings and resources on the course topic in discussion groups and classroom dialogues.
- To dress appropriately and in accordance with the NOBTS Student Handbook. This means no flip-flops and no ball caps!
- To turn off cell phones and to not accept any phone calls during class.
- To use laptops appropriately.

Text Review Readings for Extra Credit – 3% extra credit

OPTIONAL: Create a five-page text review for a book selection not already required or read for the course. The text selected must be pre-approved and consist of at least 150 pages. The text review should include a brief summary, the vital concepts, and your appraisal and considerations on the text.

Course Policies

Late Assignments

Assignments not submitted on the due dates are considered late and will be automatically penalized 10% for each date late including weekends. Late assignments will not be accepted one week beyond the original due date, no exceptions. No grades of Incomplete will be issued for this course. If a late assignment is not received, a grade of "F" is automatically earned for the course.
