Mission Statement

The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Core Value Focus

Annually, the President will designate a core value that will become the focus of pedagogy for the year. For the 2015-2016 academic year, that Core Value is Mission Focus. Our core values also include: Doctrinal Integrity, Characteristic Excellence, Spiritual Vitality, and Servant Leadership.

Course Description

This course is designed to augment the student's grasp of Greek grammar as presented in the introductory course and to advance the student's understanding of the exegetical significance of New Testament Greek. Intermediate Greek, while helpful to any student wishing to go further in understanding New Testament Greek, is required for language track students. Intermediate Greek Grammar for Exegesis is a prerequisite for Advanced Greek Exegesis; Advanced Greek Grammar; Readings in Hellenistic Literature; and Textual Criticism of the Greek New Testament.

Student Learning Outcomes

- Students should understand the categories and functions of Greek grammar
- Students should gain an increased appreciation for how the study of Greek enhances Biblical interpretation
- Students should acquire the ability to translate most any text in the Greek New Testament and apply this analysis to sound interpretation of the text

Required Texts

1. James A. Brooks and Carlton L. Winbery. A Morphology of New Testament Greek: A Review and Reference Grammar. Lanham, MD: University Press of America, 1994.
2. Gerald. L. Stevens. New Testament Greek Intermediate: From Morphology to Translation. Eugene, OR: Cascade Books, 2008.
3. Warren C. Trenchard. Complete Vocabulary Guide to the Greek New Testament. Rev. ed. Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 1998.

4. United Bible Society's 4th (or 5th) Rev. ed. of The Greek New Testament with Dictionary

Course Requirements

- The student will read the required texts for the course
- The student will read, translate, and locate selected biblical passages
- The student will record themselves quoting a memory verse and memory passage in Greek
- The student will take a total of ten vocabulary quizzes based on word frequency lists in Trenchard
- The student will write a brief paper on a specific passage as per the info in the embedded assignment
- The student will take three sectional exams, the last of which will be the final
- The student will participate in threaded discussions in a meaningful way. Various grammatical and exegetical topics will be posted for interaction.

Translation and Location	15%
Embedded Assignment Paper	15%
Vocabulary Quizzes & Recordings	20%
Sectional Exams & Final	30%

Netiquette Statement on Appropriate Online Behavior

Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online on the Discussion Board. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity will be expected at all times in the online environment.

Extra Credit

Students may earn extra points on their quiz average and final average. See Unit 6 and Unit 12 for extra credit opportunities. Also, students may earn 2 points on their final average if they read through Devotions on the Greek New Testament: 52 Reflections to Inspire & Instruct, eds. J. Scott Duvall & Verlyn D. Verbrugge. This inexpensive devotional book from Zondervan can help you to integrate your Greek translation skills into your devotional life, guiding you to a deeper understanding of the New Testament.

Getting Started (Intro-Week)

- Review the syllabus and ask questions if you have any. Go to Communication: Discussion Board and use the General Questions forum or e-mail your professor
- Go to Blackboard- Introduction
 - Read Please Read First and Tips on Becoming a Great Online Student
 - Welcome & Introductions – Watch the course welcome and introduction videos and participate in the Personal Introductions blog
 - Faculty – Get to know your course instructor
- Go to Blackboard-Course Files: Course Documents then download and read the Student Help Guide for Posting Greek in Blackboard. If you have not done so already, be sure to download the TekniaGreek font as this will be required to take quizzes and exams, and participate in the Unit Discussion Board Assignments
