Mission Statement

The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Core Value Focus

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary has five core values: Doctrinal Integrity, Spiritual Vitality, Mission Focus, Characteristic Excellence, and Servant Leadership. These values shape both the context and manner in which all curricula are taught, with “doctrinal integrity” and “mission focus” especially highlighted in this course. The core value focus for the 2017-18 year is Servant Leadership: “We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us.”

Curriculum Competencies

All graduates of NOBTS are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in each of the following areas: Biblical Exposition, Christian Theological Heritage, Disciple Making, Interpersonal Skills, Servant Leadership, Spiritual and Character Formation, and Worship Leadership. The curriculum competencies addressed in this course are: Christian Theological Heritage and Spiritual and Character Formation.

Course Description

This course surveys the historical development of Christianity from the sixteenth century to the present. Attention is given to the causes, character, and consequences of the Protestant and Catholic Reformations and to the challenges and initiatives occasioned by the modern period.

Student Learning Outcomes

- The student demonstrates an understanding of significant individuals, movements, institutions, and theological concepts in the history of Christianity.
- The student demonstrates an ability to apply principles learned from the study of the history of Christianity to church and ministry today.
- The student demonstrates an ability to communicate understanding and application of principles learned from the study of the history of Christianity.

Textbooks

- Justo L. Gonzalez, The Story of Christianity, Volume 2: The Reformation to the Present Day (Second edition, New York, NY: HarperOne, 2010);
- Mark Noll, Turning Points: Decisive Movements in the History of Christianity (Third edition, Grand Rapids, MI: Baker Academic, 2012);
- Henry Bettenson and Chris Maunder (eds.), Documents of the Christian Church (Fourth edition; New York, NY: Oxford University Press, 2011).

Students should read the pertinent text materials in preparation for lectures and class discussions. The class schedule indicates the reading assignments.

Textbooks should be read in their entirety by the end of the semester. A statement indicating completion of this requirement will be submitted by each student at the time of the final examination.

Course Teaching Methodology

This course provides a general historical survey of the Christian movement from the Protestant Reformation to the present. The course will involve assigned readings, lectures, participation in class discussions, two book reviews, and a mid-term and final exam. This course is delivered as an on-campus, classroom course.
