Mission Statement

The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Core Value Focus

The seminary has five core values.

1. Doctrinal Integrity: Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. This course addresses Doctrinal Integrity specifically by preparing students to grow in understanding and interpreting of the Bible.
2. Spiritual Vitality: We are a worshiping community emphasizing both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary family for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word. Spiritual Vitality is addressed by reminding students that a dynamic relationship with God is vital for effective ministry.
3. Mission Focus: We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries. This course addresses Mission Focus by helping students understand the biblical foundations for fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments.
4. Characteristic Excellence: What we do, we do to the utmost of our abilities and resources as a testimony to the glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Characteristic Excellence is addressed by preparing students to excel in their ability to interpret Scripture, which is foundational to effective ministry.
5. Servant Leadership: We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us. Servant Leadership is modeled by classroom department.

The core value focus for this academic year is Doctrinal Integrity.

Curriculum Competencies

NOBTS faculty members realize that all ministers need to develop specific competencies if they are going to have an effective ministry. To increase the likelihood of NOBTS graduates having an effective ministry, the faculty developed a competency-based curriculum after identifying seven essential competencies necessary for effective ministry. All graduates are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in all of the following areas:

1. Biblical Exposition: to interpret and communicate the Bible accurately.
2. Christian Theological Heritage: To understand and interpret Christian theological heritage and Baptist polity for the church.
3. Disciple Making: To stimulate church health through mobilizing the church for missions, evangelism, discipleship, and church growth.
4. Interpersonal Skills: To perform pastoral care effectively, with skills in communication and conflict management.
5. Servant Leadership: To serve churches effectively through team ministry.
6. Spiritual and Character Formation: To provide moral leadership by modeling and mentoring Christian character and devotion.
7. Worship Leadership: To facilitate worship effectively.

The curriculum competencies addressed in this course are: Christian Theological Heritage and Worship Leadership.

Course Description

A survey of resources for congregational song in evangelical worship, this course will explore the literature of the Psalms, the development of hymns and gospel songs of the church age, including current day contemporary songs for corporate worship. Emphasis will be given to the usage of various song materials in their historical context as well as possible application to the context of today. The role of sung text in the spiritual formation of the congregation will also be examined. There are no musical pre-requisites for this course.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. The student will demonstrate knowledge of the history of Congregational Song in the Christian church throughout history.
2. The student will demonstrate understanding of effective use of Congregational Song in corporate worship.
3. The student will demonstrate the ability to evaluate current worship trends and practices based upon historical foundations studied.
4. The student will examine implicit attitudes about recent history that shape worship and develop pastoral sensibilities for decision making in congregational leadership.
5. The student will gain a sense for the discipline of the study of the history of Christian worship, including basic bibliographic and source materials.

Course Teaching Methodology

The course will involve the following methodologies:

1. Assigned reading
2. Professor and student presentation
3. Individual research and writing
4. Class discussion
5. Listening
6. Worship observation

Embedded Assignment

Students will complete one (1) written church visit report. You are to visit one (1) different church service throughout the semester and reflect on their use of “psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs” according to the following five (5) categories:

1. The suitability of their choices for the service, theme, and season of the church year.
2. The liturgical or other function(s) of their songs in the service.
3. The quality of their texts and tunes as worship songs.
4. The quality of the actual performance of their worship songs.
5. The effective use of congregational song in corporate worship.

The intent is that you experience congregational song in church contexts other than your own denomination or faith, and that you experience a context beyond your comfort zone. Word-process your reflection (with specific relevant details such as topic of service, authors/ composers of songs, and attach church bulletin) in approximately 100 words for each report addressing the five categories listed above.

Course Requirements

1. Students should logon to BLACKBOARD at www.nobts.edu to access the course at the beginning of the semester. All course announcements, testing, communication and information will be available in this venue. Students will engage in online discussion, testing, and document submission throughout the semester.

2. Students will be required to attend workshops on two meeting days.

New Orleans Class: Sept. 7th 8:00 am – 5:00 pm [Friday]

Nov. 16: 8:00 am – 5:00 pm [Friday]

Students must be in attendance for the entire workshop in order to receive credit for the course. The workshop will consist of professor and student presentations with discussion of topics generated from course materials. Detailed schedules will be sent beforehand.

3. Students will complete weekly reading assignments and participate in online discussion based on reading and assignments. A minimum of three posts to the discussion is required: one independent post by the student and two posts responding to posts by other students. Since there are 9 discussion topics and 3 posts for each the grade will be based on the 27 posts. Sunday of each week the Assignments Folder will open for that particular week only and close Saturday at midnight. All online assignments must be completed during the time that the folder is open.

4. Students will complete weekly tests which will cover materials from assigned reading, online discussion, and notes posted by the professor in course documents the preceding week.

5. Write a hymn text: A metrical paraphrase of a Scripture text or a new hymn text; Your verse should consist of twelve (12) or more lines (divided over three (3) or more stanzas). It should involve rhyme and follow one of the more commonly-used meters (so that it can be sung to a familiar hymn tune). Please list the name of the hymn tune used.

The hymn text must be submitted online as a PDF in the Weekly Assignment folder that it is due. Include the following in the title of the document: Hymn Text.YOUR NAME.date Due date Nov. 9

6. Students will complete one (1) written Church Visit Report. You are to visit one (1) different church service throughout the semester and reflect on their use of “psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs” according to the following five (5) categories:

- The suitability of their choices for the service, theme, and season of the church year.
- The liturgical or other function(s) of their songs in the service.
- The quality of their texts and tunes as worship songs.
- The quality of the actual performance of their worship songs.
- The effective use of congregational song in corporate worship.

The intent is that you experience congregational song in church contexts other than your own denomination or faith, and that you experience a context beyond your comfort zone. Word-process your reflection (with specific relevant details such as topic of service, authors/ composers of songs, and attach church bulletin) in approximately 100 words for each report addressing the five categories listed above. This is an embedded assignment to be used in assessment.

The church visit report must be submitted online as a PDF in the Weekly Assignment folder that it is due. Please use the format given in the Course Information section of Blackboard. Include the following in the title of the document: Church Visit Report. YOUR NAME.date Due date – September 27

7. Students will make two (2) class presentations [one during each hybrid meeting] on one of the topics below in the course schedule.

- The first presentation should be taken from the topics from Week 1-7; the second presentation, from Weeks 8-14.
- The presentations are to be done with Powerpoint. You are to prepare a handout for the Professor with suitable source materials documented in a bibliography.
- There will be a sign-up WiKi on Blackboard. The topics will be chosen during the first week of class.
- Each presentation should last between 10-12 minutes. This time should include presenting your information, and singing appropriate selections. You should use the texts and at least one other source.
- Presentations will be evaluated according to the rubric found in Course Information section of Blackboard.

8. Students will read and write a critical review of the book, Wonderful Words of Life: Hymns in American Protestant History and Theology. The review should be 8-12 single-spaced typewritten pages in length. The review should follow the format given in Course Information section of Blackboard and include:

1. A biographical sketch of the author
2. A summary of contents of each article
3. A statement of the author's purpose and the extent to which the purpose was realized
4. A consideration of the uniqueness of the book
5. A description of the author/essayists' style and biases
6. A concluding evaluation including a statement about the book's contribution to the study of congregational song history.

The review should be done on each article and would be about one page in length. Each must be submitted online as a PDF in the Weekly Assignment folder that it is due. Due Date December 3

9. Final Exam covering an outline of the development of hymnody and a reflection paper on what they have learned this semester.

10: INTERNET CLASS MEETING BY BLUEJEANS TUESDAY AUGUST 21, 8:00 PM CST

You will receive an invitation to join the meeting via email. Follow instructions as given when you click to join.
