Mission Statement

The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Core Value Focus

The seminary has five core values.

1. Doctrinal Integrity: Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. This course addresses Doctrinal Integrity specifically by preparing students to grow in understanding and interpreting of the Bible.
2. Spiritual Vitality: We are a worshiping community emphasizing both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary family for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word. Spiritual Vitality is addressed by reminding students that a dynamic relationship with God is vital for effective ministry.
3. Mission Focus: We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries. This course addresses Mission Focus by helping students understand the biblical foundations for fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments.
4. Characteristic Excellence: What we do, we do to the utmost of our abilities and resources as a testimony to the glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Characteristic Excellence is addressed by preparing students to excel in their ability to interpret Scripture, which is foundational to effective ministry.
5. Servant Leadership: We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us. Servant Leadership is modeled by classroom deportment.

The core value focus for the 2017–18 academic year is Servant Leadership.

Curriculum Competencies

NOBTS faculty members realize that all ministers need to develop specific competencies if they are going to have an effective ministry. To increase the likelihood of NOBTS graduates having an effective ministry, the faculty developed a competency-based curriculum after identifying seven essential competencies necessary for effective ministry. All graduates are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in all of the following areas:

1. Biblical Exposition: to interpret and communicate the Bible accurately.
2. Christian Theological Heritage: To understand and interpret Christian theological heritage and Baptist polity for the church.
3. Disciple Making: To stimulate church health through mobilizing the church for missions, evangelism, discipleship, and church growth.
4. Interpersonal Skills: To perform pastoral care effectively, with skills in communication and conflict management.
5. Servant Leadership: To serve churches effectively through team ministry.

6. Spiritual and Character Formation: To provide moral leadership by modeling and mentoring Christian character and devotion.

7. Worship Leadership: To facilitate worship effectively.

The curriculum competencies addressed in this course are: Biblical Exposition and Christian Theological Heritage.

Course Description

This second course in systematic theology introduces the student to the doctrines of the work of Christ, salvation and the Christian life, the Holy Spirit, the church, and last things. The biblical foundation and the relevant historical developments are considered in developing a comprehensive statement of Christian teaching concerning construction of a Christian understanding of each doctrine.

Student Learning Outcomes

The student, by the end of the course, should:

1. Be able to understand theological method and the doctrines of the work of Christ, salvation, the Holy Spirit, the church, and last things biblically, historically, and systematically.
2. Be able to apply theology by integrating these doctrines into a coherent, comprehensive, and consistent Christian worldview.
3. Be able to communicate these doctrines in the particular ministry calling and context of the learner.

Course Teaching Methodology

The course will involve the following methodologies: assigned readings, classroom lectures, classroom discussions, reflective essays, and book reviews. These methods are consistent with the belief that some learning will occur outside of the classroom (as students read assigned texts and write reflective essays critical book reviews) as well as in the classroom (from classroom lectures and discussions). My goal is not that students will be indoctrinated to affirm all my views; rather, my goal is that students think critically about their own views, gain a better understanding of other views, and be able to assess the strengths and weaknesses of the supporting claims.

Course Requirements (350 total points possible)

Summary:

Reflective Essays. Ten at 10 points each = 100 points

Book Reviews. Three at 50 points each = 150 points (Option: Two book reviews & Conference)

Final Exam. 100 points

Attendance. Points will be added or subtracted based upon class attendance.

Details:

- Reflective Essays. Students will submit ten reflective essays. Each essay should be double-spaced page and 250–300 words. Each paper is worth a possible 10 points and is meant to be a creative, reflective essay. Avoid first person (“I, me, my”); simply state things as fact. Students may cite names and Bible verses, but should not include any quotations due to space constraints. This reflective essay is not meant to be a summary of a doctrine but the student’s thoughts on the topic after reflecting on the assigned reading. A 10-point paper meets the length requirement and has excellent content, grammar, and syntax. A 9-point paper has a minor problem with the length, grammar, or syntax. A 7- or 8-point paper has multiple problems. Reflective essays will be received only in BlackBoard on the due date by the time class begins. Papers will be received early, not late. 100 points possible.

arguments. This section might include an outline of the book's contents and definitions of key terms.

Critique (1,000–1,200 words)

The critique should address many of the following:

- critique of the author's thesis, assumptions, supporting arguments, method, sources, logic, and style;
- specific examples of strengths and weaknesses (such as any relevant areas not addressed) of the book
- discussion of the book's usefulness for the intended audience, how the book contributes to its field, other books which explore the issue;
- closing sentence either recommending the book or not and explaining why.

Cite page numbers parenthetically. Footnote only outside sources. Use quotations sparingly. Avoid first person. No title page is required (Students should provide name, date, and word count for each section at the top of page one). Please format in single-spaced, 12-point Times New Roman font. Submit all the reviews online by their respective due dates. Bring paper copies of the selected book reviews on the due for the class members. 50 points each. = 150 points.

Policy Regarding Late Work

Late work will not be accepted.

Special Accommodations

If you require educational accommodations, please contact the provost's office.

Using Technology in the Classroom

In this class, you may:

- not use laptops or phones because they often distract from the topic being discussed in class.
- record classes with any type of audio or video recording device. Please let me know if you plan to do so.

Study Tips

1. Plan to study 2–3 hours for every 1 hour in class.
2. Read your textbook even when you don't expect to be tested.
3. Rewrite your new class notes each week.

Online Resources

Although Wikipedia or Theopedia can be helpful places to begin research, web sites typically should not be cited in academic research. They may be consulted for a survey of the subject and to lead you to credible primary and secondary sources. However, they cannot be trusted for accuracy since they are not subject to academic peer-review. Your goal is to find academic, peer-reviewed articles and published resources, whether they are accessed online or in print.

Personal Note: Please join me in asking God to guide our thoughts as we seek to grow in our knowledge and love for him through the study of the doctrines of atonement, salvation, the Holy Spirit, the church, and last things.
