Course Teaching Methodology

A variety of teaching methods will be utilized such as class presentations by the professor using Power Point and handouts. Other teaching methods include small and large group discussion, multi-media presentations, utilization of missions related websites, and other communication mediums. Students will also give class presentations.

Course Requirements

1. Blackboard. You will be enrolled on Blackboard for the course by the NOBTS ITC. If you have any problems with access to Blackboard after the fall semester begins, contact Blackboard at BlackboardHelpDesk@nobts.edu or (504) 282.4455 x8180.
2. Reading. Read all required reading assignments from the textbook, Discovering the Mission of God or other assigned sources. You will be accountable for reading assignments through quizzes, reading checkups, or other appropriate evaluation. Those late to class may not be allowed to take quizzes or reading checkups and these cannot be made up if missed.
3. Missionary Biography or Missions Book Critique and Presentation. Read a missionary biography or missions book approved by the professor, write a critique of the book, and give a class presentation related to the book.

The book chosen to read may come from the list of missionary biographies on the Course Documents of the Blackboard supplement, course syllabus bibliography or another book approved by the professor. (The book must not be one used in another course)

- A. Write a minimum of a two full double-spaced page critique, using one inch margins, 12 point Times New Roman, a cover page, headings (See (5) below, and proper Turabian form. The book critique should include the following:
 - (1) Briefly summarize the contents of the book. Discuss the major topics or themes of the book. Summaries may be done for each chapter but covering the main themes is more important.
 - (2) Discuss two concepts, principles, or ways to apply concepts from the book that would be helpful to someone involved in ministry. Include how these points could impact your own life and ministry.
 - (3) Use Headings for each section in the body of the paper: Summary, Discussion. Each section should be approximately one full page of text.
- B. During the class presentation, the student will distribute a handout of one or more pages to the class containing practical insights or suggestions applicable to ministry from the book. The handout should not simply be an outline of chapter titles or major sections of the book.

Due: Submit on Blackboard by 11:59 p.m. Wednesday, September 11.
Presentations begin Thursday, September 12.

4. Acts 1:8 Strategy Paper. Research and write a strategy designed to enable a local church to implement an Acts 1:8 strategy which includes intentional local (Jerusalem); regional (Judea); North America (Samaria) and international missions(ends of the earth) with direct involvement by church members. If your church already has an Acts 1:8 strategy, develop your plan for how to expand its ministry in the four areas or develop an Acts 1:8 strategy for another existing church or planned new church. This plan should be a minimum of six to eight full double-spaced pages in length. The Acts One 8 website shows the basic expectations for Acts 1:8 churches which includes committing a church “to a comprehensive missions involvement in our community (our Jerusalem), state (our Judea), continent (our Samaria), and world (our ends of the earth).” <http://dev.actstone8.com/>
Your paper will be a brief description of how you will carry out missions in the four geographic areas and separately how to use each of the eight commitments for your church. (See “Acts One 8” website for a description of the eight commitments. Begin your plan with a brief description of your church and its present involvement in missions. An overview of information on the Acts 1:8 Challenge will be given during the course. Use headings: Introduction, Description of Church, Geographic Areas of Missions, Commitments, and Conclusion.
Examples of Acts 1:8 churches may be found in articles from Commission Stories available online through <http://www.commissionstories.com/>; <http://imb.org>; and <http://www.namb.net>. For detailed information on the Acts 1:8 challenge, go to the website: <http://dev.actstone8.com/> Due: Submit on Blackboard by 11:59 p.m., Wednesday, October 23. This assignment is an embedded assignment that will be completed by all students for all sections of this course. The rubric for grading this assignment is attached to this syllabus. Please complete the assignment according to the syllabus guidelines and this rubric.
5. Reflection Paper. Write a 3-4 double-spaced page reflection paper on how you sense God’s leadership to be involved in missions? Describe how you have examined the missionary call to determine whether or not God has or is calling you to service as a long-term missionary at this point in time. Include how you will be available for possible short term missionary service in your ministry if not called to long-term missionary service. Discuss further aspects of how you will be involved in missions. Chapter thirty-eight of the textbook provides helpful insights for exploring a missionary call in one’s life and should be consulted for this reflection paper. The paper should include appropriate references to Bible verses and passages and other sources as needed. It may be written using first person. The reflection paper will be graded for clarity, content, creative expression, and proper grammatical expression and form. Due: Submit on Blackboard by 11:59 p.m. Wednesday, October 30.
6. Special Project. All special projects should: Have 12-14 full pages, typed double spaced in the body of the paper, using at least at least 12 different sources cited in footnotes, endnotes, or otherwise in proper Turabian form. An introduction, chapter headings, and conclusion are the body of the paper. A cover page, table of contents, and separate bibliography of works cited in research should be included. Use one inch margins, 12 point Times New Roman. Due: Submit on Blackboard by 11:59 p.m. Wednesday, November 20.
Choose one of the following to complete from A. or one of the six options under B.
A. Academic: The student will research and write a paper on an approved topic related to missions and ministry.
Examples: How to involve more church members in mission projects and mission service; The Cooperative Program and its missionary impact on Southern Baptists; The Life and Ministry of Lottie Moon,... Annie Armstrong (or) other missionaries or mission

- figures; An Analysis of the North American Mission Board since its formation in 1997; The Call to Be a Missionary: Is Everyone a Missionary or Is It a Spiritual Gift.
- B. Any 3 Witnessing Assignment: Read the book, Any 3: Anyone, Anywhere, Anytime by Mike Shipman. Submit a 3-5 page review of the book by Wed., October 2. Memorize the Any Three presentation and practice it with at least two people (these can be Christians) and enter a one paragraph discussion of your two practice attempts in the appropriate discussion forum by Wed., October 30. No later than Fri., Nov. 15 attempt to share the Any Three presentation with at least three Muslims. Submit a 2 to 4 double-spaced page summary of your Any 3 witness attempts with the three Muslims by Wed., Nov. 20.
- C. Ministry Focused: Students may choose any individual project or to participate in a group ministry focused special project. Details will be given in class.
- (1) Develop a people profile and strategy proposal for an unreached people group, population segment, or city which may be selected in consultation with the professor. The proposal should include the five pillars of a comprehensive strategy outlined in New Directions, pages 41-42, as a guide to help develop a strategy for reaching the unreached people group. The IMB Regional offices or IMB missionaries may be contacted about possible people groups to profile.
 - (2) Prepare a complete project work-up for a North American or International volunteer mission project. This should include a clear objective; target group profile; time frame; orientation, preparation and implementation schedule; logistical details; cost estimates; relevant health issues; project partners and facilitators; materials needed; and debriefing process. Students should not develop a project work-up of an already completed project but one anticipated in the future that may be patterned after a prior trip.
 - (3) Develop an actual prayer and advocacy network for a specific unreached people group, population segment, city, or related ministry. This network should include at least two congregations and 25 individuals, and should include basic promotional material. The people group or related ministry should be selected in consultation with the professor.
 - (4) Develop a profile and evangelistic strategy for a people group or population segment in a city or area. Include the five pillars of a comprehensive strategy found in New Directions, pages 41-42, as a guide to help develop a strategy. You should seek to share your findings with someone working in the ministry through a local church or with that people group or segment of the population.
 - (5) Do research on a specific geographic location such as a city, town or rural area. Determine what is being done now to reach people in that location for Christ. Develop a missions strategy for reaching a special target or ethnic group in the geographic location that includes a three year plan of ministry. Seek to contact at least one person or group targeting that city or area if possible. Make your strategy available to them when complete. The five pillars of a comprehensive mission strategy found in New Directions, pages 41-42 should be used as a guide for developing a strategy to reach the people in the location with the gospel.
- D. Do an alternative special project upon approval from the professor.
- E. Due dates and format: By Wednesday, September 4, each student will submit the topic of the project including Any 3 in the appropriate discussion forum. For the academic and ministry focused projects each student will turn in a preliminary outline of his or her project with at least 6 of the 14 sources that will be used by Wednesday, October 2. This will be submitted in the Assignment File. The final project is due on Wednesday, November 20, and should be submitted on the appropriate discussion board so that all students will have access to papers. The paper should be at least 12-14 pages in length (the text portion) and use at least 12 different sources. All papers should be in Turabian format. Use footnotes to show your sources. Students will also be responsible for reviewing other research papers as assigned at the end of the semester. Failure to review the assigned research papers of fellow students will negatively impact your research paper grade.

7. Spend three hours in volunteer missions service in New Orleans or in the place you live at a North American Mission Board, state convention, or local church/association community service ministry site. One goal of the assignment will be for you to be involved in ministry beyond the four walls of a church building or traditional ministry structures. This project may be completed any time between registration and the due date below. Write a brief summary of your experience, along with personal reflection on the experience. This project will be graded on a pass/fail basis but is a necessary component of passing this course. The typed summary and reflection should be one to two double spaced typed pages. (Students who are not Southern Baptist may discuss with the professor an appropriate substitute for this assignment.)

Due: Submit on Blackboard by 11:59 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 4.
