Mission Statement

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and Leavell College prepare servants to walk with Christ, proclaim His truth, and fulfill His mission.

Course Description

This course involves a study of the dynamics of communicating the Christian faith transculturally. Attention is given to techniques for understanding culture and worldview, and to the relationship of culture to the gospel, evangelism, discipleship, and other concerns of the Christian faith.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. The student will develop an understanding of culture and worldview by defining these terms.
2. The student will appreciate key cultural traits of other cultures.
3. The student will demonstrate the ability to describe the worldview of a people group with whom they may be involved in present or future ministry.
4. The student will develop a model for communication and sharing the gospel in culturally appropriate ways to people groups in other cultures.

Course Textbooks:

- A. Scott Moreau, Evvy Hay Campbell and Susan Greener, Effective Intercultural Communication: A Christian Perspective. Grand Rapids: Baker Academic, 2014.
A second book chosen by the student and approved by the professor relating to aspects of transcultural communication of the gospel. (Details in # 3 below)

Course Requirements:

1. Blackboard. Each student must maintain a valid e-mail address recorded in your Blackboard account at all times. If you have trouble using Blackboard, please contact the ITC department of NOBTS at blackboardhelpdesk@nobts.edu or call (504) 816-8180. All papers must be submitted via the Assignments tab in the Blackboard course and are due by 11:59 P.M. on the assigned date.
2. Readings in Effective Intercultural Communication. Students will be required to read the assigned chapters within the textbook. See Reading Assignments for the weekly chapters. Each student will be required to read the primary textbook and may be asked to complete reading reports, take quizzes over assigned material, post on Discussion Board, or share with the class insights from daily assigned readings. Post reading reports on Blackboard Assignments folder as required on Wednesdays by 11:59 P.M.

3. Each student will read and prepare a written critique and oral presentation on one other book on transcultural communication which will be chosen with approval of the instructor. The syllabus and primary text bibliographies are two sources for selecting a book.
 - A. Write a minimum of a three to five full page double-spaced, typed critique of the book. The critique should include all three of the following:
 - (1) Briefly summarize the contents of the book.
 - (2) Evaluate the material from a biblical, theological, and missiological perspectives.
 - (3) Discuss two or more concepts, principles, or applications from the book that relate to cross-cultural communication of the gospel. Use headings for each section:

Summary, Evaluation, and Discussion

Book Critique due: Wednesday, September 1, 11:59 P.M.

- B. Prepare an oral presentation to the class relating to the book. Highlight materials from the book which would provide insights into transcultural communication of the gospel. Prepare and distribute to the class a handout of one or more pages containing practical insights or suggestions from the book which may be helpful to the entire class. The professor will determine time limits for the presentations.

Presentations Begin: Thursday, September 2

4. Write and submit three minor papers throughout the semester.
 - A. Each paper will be five to seven full pages in the body, double-spaced, one inch margins, 12 point Times New Roman, footnotes, cover page, Works Cited page, and follows Turabian guidelines. Include a minimum of five different sources in each paper.
 - (1) Paper #1: Worldview Paper: Select and research a major worldview (other than Christianity). Include three sections:
 - a. a brief description of where adherents of this worldview live
 - b. a description of the worldview
 - c. valuable insights for sharing the gospel based on the information discovered in (1) & (2). Use headings: Introduction, Setting, Description, Insights, Conclusion

Due: Wednesday, September 15, 11:59 P.M.

(2) Paper #2: Interview Paper

- a. Interview three to five persons, the interviews are your sources for this project, from the people group, population segment, or city with whom you serve or may serve in the future in order to gain a better understanding of their worldview. Those planning for international ministry may interview internationals living temporarily in the USA.
- b. Prepare a summary of the interview project including insights from each interview. The report should include a summary of the interview content, insights gained from the interview, and your personal reaction to the interview.
- c. An introduction and conclusion should be included. Headings to separate each interview and subheadings are helpful for reading and evaluation of the project. Examples: Summary, Family, Social Structure, Insights, Reaction. Include an Introduction and Conclusion.
 - a. Possible areas to include in interview questions: (1) family structure, (2) social structure, (3) religious structure, (4) economic structure, (5) political structure (local or national) if appropriate.

- b. Examples of items to consider while preparing your insights and personal reaction to the interviews: (1) Reflect on information gained. (2) Were there surprises in their answers? (3) What new insights did you gain?

Due: Wednesday, October 20, 11:59 P.M.

(3) Paper #3: Plan for Transcultural Communication

- a. Write a plan for transcultural communication for a specific city, geographic area, or people group.
- b. The plan should include such items as geography, examination of a people group, linguistic groups, cultural influences, social values, kinship groupings, alliances, community organization, social stratification, religious groups, government, economic, and population figures when available.
- c. The impact of other people groups or other cultures on the people group may be included.
- d. The project should include suggestions for culturally appropriate ways to share the gospel with a people group based on the class readings and research.
- e. Use heading for sections including an Introduction and Conclusion.

Due: Wednesday, November 10, 11:59 P.M.

- B. Prepare oral presentations to the class that summarizes key points and highlights from each paper. Prepare and distribute a handout of one or more pages containing practical insights and key points which may be helpful to the entire class. The professor will determine time limits for the presentations.

Presentations for Paper 1 begin: Thursday, September 16

Presentations for Paper 2 begin: Thursday, October 21

Presentations for Paper 3 begin: Thursday, November 11

5. Midterm and Final Assignments: Complete the assignments as posted on Blackboard. The midterm will consist of a discussion board post reflecting on key issues learned in the course. The final will be an exam.
