NOBTS MISSION STATEMENT:

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and Leavell College prepare servants to walk with Christ, proclaim His truth, and fulfill His mission.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The purpose of this course is to introduce the student to the literature of the New Testament by means of studying both the Biblical text and the historical and cultural factors that shaped it. The historical background, certain aspects of contemporary scholarship, and especially the themes and general teachings of the New Testament books will be discussed.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

This course seeks to realize the following in student learning:

1. The student should understand thoroughly New Testament history, background, and canon, and the NT teachings on selected NT themes.
2. The student should be able to apply adequately New Testament history, background, and canon, and selected New Testament themes to contemporary church needs.
3. The student should be able to communicate clearly New Testament history, background, and canon, and selected New Testament themes to a contemporary audience.

COURSE TEACHING METHODS:

1. The primary method of instruction in the course will be by way of class lectures, media clips, discussions, and other resources that will be mentioned during the class.
2. The readings will be evaluated by quizzes at the beginning of the class periods.
3. Written assignments and tests will also be used to provide students with an opportunity to assimilate the course material and demonstrate competency in the subject matter.

TEXTBOOKS: The following textbooks are required for the course:

The Bible (any major translation or the Greek NT for NT portions)

Burge, Cohick, and Green, The New Testament in Antiquity

Simon Jones, The World of the Early Church: A Social History

Either Bruce Longenecker, The Lost Letters of Pergamum: A Story from the NT World

Or Scot McKnight, The King Jesus Gospel

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND GRADING:

1. The assigned readings must be completed. Readings form the core of this course, and so are considered essential for the successful completion of this course. A quiz may be given at any class session on the assigned readings for that day. 20%
2. An Embedded Assignment that will be in the form of a take-home research exercise. See below for more details. The value for this assignment is part of the exam to which it pertains.
3. A two page, double-spaced critique of one of the two listed books (The Lost Letters of Pergamum or The King Jesus Gospel—your choice on which you read) is due Thurs., Apr 2 (after spring break). The critique should include the following: An affirmation of having read the entire book, a bibliographic entry, brief info on the author, a two-paragraph summary, and a 2 paragraph critique/reaction. The contents of the books will be discussed on the date on which the critique is due. 15%
4. First sectional exam, to be given as indicated in the class schedule. 20%
5. Second sectional exam, given as indicated in the class schedule, includes the Embedded Assignment. 25%
6. A comprehensive final exam, to be given as scheduled by the seminary. 20%

PLAGIARISM ON WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS:

NOBTS has a no tolerance policy for plagiarism. Plagiarism in certain cases may result in expulsion from the seminary. See the NOBTS Student Handbook for definition, penalties, and policies associated with plagiarism.

HELP FOR WRITING PAPERS AT “THE WRITE STUFF”

NOBTS maintains a Writing Center designed to improve English writing at the graduate level. Students can receive writing guides, tips, and valuable information to help in becoming a better writer.

EMBEDDED ASSIGNMENT DESCRIPTION: The course includes an embedded assignment that will be completed by all students for all sections of this course. The rubric for grading this assignment is given here. Please complete the assignment according to this rubric.

1. A summative question will be answered thoroughly by the students as a take-home assignment. The question (or research problem) will require research of the historical context, genre, theology, and/or interpretive concerns of a selected period, event, or passage. Answers should be well-developed and provide thorough documentation and appropriate use of tools and resources. Students should use Times 12 pt. font, 1-inch margins, single-spaced, approximately two pages in length. (2 pages)
2. The student should show adequate application of the research to a selected need of the Christian community. (1 page)
3. The student should communicate clearly how the research question answer might impact the faith & life of Christian believers, focusing on the contemporary audience. (1 page)
