The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and Leavell College is to prepare servants to walk with Christ, proclaim His truth, and fulfill His mission.

Student Learning Outcomes

Students should

1. The student will understand the canonical development and arrangement of the OT.
2. The student will identify significant OT themes, characters, nations, and historical events (and their relationship to the NT whenever appropriate).

3. The student will demonstrate the value of the background, setting, literary structure, and message of the OT books (Authorship, Date, Content, Analysis, etc.).
4. The student will work with selected methods currently employed in the study of the OT & explain the resultant implications of the various theories.

Course Teaching Methodology & Requirements

1. Textbook Reading: Students are responsible for reading the assigned pages in the textbooks for each of the fifteen units. The Unit Assignment Guide (UAG) stipulates the selected texts and pages due for each unit. See the UAG for this data.
2. Bible Reading: Students should complete reading through the entire Old Testament by following the UAG assignments. Any modern English translation will suffice. If English is not your primary language, please contact the professor of record to gain permission to read in your native language. Follow the Bible reading assignments as identified in the UAG.
3. Three Worksheets: Students will demonstrate mastery of the canonical text by submitting three worksheets during the semester. The worksheets will consist of questions requiring research. Each worksheet must be written well with proper formatting (footnotes, headings, etc), a minimum of 14 pages, double-spaced (plus a selected bibliography) but not longer than 20 pages! These are due by Thursday (11:59pm) of the unit in which it is assigned--Units 6, 11, 16. Graduating seniors must submit the final worksheet during Unit 15 to ensure timely processing for graduation.
4. Interactive Component: Building a Ministry Portfolio. Embedded in the syllabus, there are reflection questions that will prepare each student for two objectives: (1) enable the student to think critically about using the Old Testament in ministry and (2) preparing each student for the upcoming worksheet by highlighting the significance of each research question.
 - a. Unless otherwise noted, students will be sorted into four reflection groups by the professor/teaching assistant. Each group will lead discussion on the assigned reflection topic during each of the four units (2-5; 7-10; 12-15) prior to each worksheet (6,11,16).
 - b. The group leaders for each unit are required to interact with each other about the assigned topic. The goal is for the leadership group to investigate and demonstrate how to employ the Old Testament in answering difficult life questions. As such, the group leading that unit must each contribute a minimum of 100 words on the topic.
 - c. All other students must contribute a minimum of 25 words, especially bringing attention to passages that address the assigned topic (pro/con).
 - d. The work submitted is not formal but is a matter of thoughtful reflection about how to apply the Old Testament to meet the needs of the local church

Course Grading System

Textbook reading: statement of percentage read at the end of Unit 16	20%
Collaborative reflect unit contributions
3, As leaders	20%
3, As class contributors	9%
Three Worksheets	51%

Make-Up & Extra Credit: Failure to submit any major assignment (worksheets or collaborative leadership contributions) will result in failure of the course. Even if late work is allowed, there could be as much as a letter grade drop per day. Notifying the professor and grader of accidents, illness, or church/family-related- unavoidable delays can lessen this penalty or allow us to grant some measure of grace.

Netiquette: Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online with professors and peers. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity will be expected at all times in the online environment.

Plagiarism: Students are given the task of writing reports & answering worksheet questions in order to help them learn how to think critically about the ideas of others and to present the result of their analysis in a readable form. Plagiarism defeats these purposes by cheating the student out of an opportunity to grow. Plagiarism is a failure to distinguish between the work of the student and the work of others, either intentionally or unintentionally. Students that plagiarize will be reported to the Dean of Students & a grade of “F” will be assigned.
