Mission Statement

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and Leavell College prepare servants to walk with Christ, proclaim His truth, and fulfill His mission.

Course Description

This course will aid students to develop competency in pastoral ministry through a study of being called to a church, beginning a pastoral ministry, building relationships, leading a church, and leaving a church field. Practical ministry matters, as well as theological and philosophical considerations, will include training in planning preaching, administering the ordinances, performing weddings, conducting funerals and ordinations, visiting, counseling, and sustaining spiritual growth.

Student Learning Outcomes

Pastoral ministry is a specific and important type of Christian shepherding. While all Christians shepherd others in various roles and relationships (such as pastors, parents, friends, counselors, teachers, mentors, and supervisors), not all are involved in a pastoral ministry vocation or calling. Usually, students who take this course have a variety of ministry callings and pursue different academic degree programs. Therefore, student learning objectives will vary, as follows:

By the end of this course, students (such as pastors, church staff members, chaplains, missionaries, and church planters) with a pastoral ministry calling and in a related academic degree program will:

1. Apply pastoral ministry principles, concepts, methodologies, and resources to their ministry context in the scope of beginning and leading ministry in a church or in selected shepherding situations.
2. Value pastor-type shepherding as a vital part of their ministry calling and work.
3. Demonstrate acceptable proficiency in pastoral ministry functions (such as able to articulate a clear theology and philosophy of pastoral ministry, engage in effective pastoral care, administer the ordinances, perform weddings and premarital counseling, conduct funerals and ordinations, do pastoral [non-licensed] counseling, plan worship and preaching, manage some types of interpersonal conflict, do basic organizational problem-solving and planning, and manage time) with the aid of a professor or class resources.
4. Learn people-sensitive and task-focused leadership principles, models and methods related to pastoral ministry and shepherding.
5. Develop a personal philosophy and theology of pastoral ministry, utilizing biblical principles and concepts.

Embedded Assignment

The final exam will be a take-home, open-book exam, and questions will come from course presentations, required textbooks, and assignments. The exam will also include an individual assessment of the personal accomplishment of two student-selected learning outcomes in this syllabus.

Note: The final exam is an embedded assignment that will be completed by all students for all sections of this course. The rubric for grading this assignment is attached to the syllabus (p.16). Please complete the assignment according to the syllabus and this rubric.

Course Teaching Methodology

The course will involve the following methodologies:

1. Lectures, classroom demonstrations, and other methods will be utilized to teach the course concepts and methodologies of shepherding God's people, as well as to present various resources available for pastoral ministry and Christian shepherding. This class is scheduled to meet Wednesdays 8:00-10:50 am. Students should be flexible if plans change.

2. Writing assignments will be required to facilitate experiential learning regarding the role, responsibilities, and ministries of pastor-type shepherds. Resource persons will be used to share experiences, as time permits.

3. Class and BlackBoard discussion will be used to enhance and promote personal insights in ministry. Student interaction with peers, pastoral ministry resource persons, seminary faculty members, and the course professor are encouraged during the duration of this class to facilitate such insights.

4. Conferences with the professor are invited and may be accomplished via telephone, email, or office visits. Even informal conferences can stimulate learning and application of course principles and concepts.

NOLA2U Flex Guidelines

If you are taking this course as a NOLA2U Flex student, please note the following attendance policies:

1. You are required to be in class either through viewing the lectures live or viewing the recorded lectures on Blackboard. When you view the recorded lecture, you will be considered present for that class. Regardless of if you watch the class live or recorded, you are only allowed to miss the amount of class time specified in the NOBTS attendance policy as stated in the graduate catalog. (See page 184 in the graduate catalog: <https://www.nobts.edu/resources/pdf/academics/GraduateCatalog.pdf> ).

2. You will be asked to certify that you have been present for the live session or have viewed the recorded session. This certification will be done through [assignment by professor] after having watched the class live or viewing the recorded session.

3. All video lectures are available for 7 days after the video is posted. If you are unable to view the video within that time frame, you will be considered absent for that class session.

4. Technical issues will not be considered as a valid reason for missing lectures.

Course Requirements

1. Using Gary McIntosh, One Size Doesn't Fit All as a guide, develop a Congregational Analysis for the church where the student is currently serving either as pastor, church staff, or member. The Congregational Analysis is to follow the 12 chapter subjects, with 1-2 pages (single-spaced) written on each topic. The length of the congregational analysis is to be 12-15 pages, single-spaced. Documentations from the textbook are to be parenthetical references (see Turabian, chapter 10) like this example: "The future of any size church is the sum of its next moves." (McIntosh 1999, 139). Note: This is not a Book Review. This is a Congregational Analysis of an actual church, using the textbook as a template for analysis. Congregational Analysis is due on BlackBoard September 23 by midnight.

2. Prepare a typed (single-spaced), 3-4 page theology of pastoral ministry (or shepherding), which gives biblical references (i.e., two to five references per topic) and discusses these topics: the calling to pastoral ministry (or to Christian ministry), the church, the office of pastor, the office of deacon, preaching, ordination, the ordinances, pastoral visitation and evangelism (or personal ministry visitation and evangelism), the pastor's (or Christian's) family and ministry priorities, servant leadership, and the pastor's (or Christian's) spiritual life and example. Format: each topic is to be taken in the order given herein and is to be listed as a heading followed by its respective biblical references and discussion. A cover page is to be used, but do not include an intervening blank page. Theology paper is due on BlackBoard October 28 by midnight.

3. Prepare a typed (single-spaced), 3-4 page philosophy of doing pastoral ministry with regard to: church revitalization, church worship (or personal worship), outreach/witnessing, discipleship, missions, ministries, stewardship, conflict management, time management, funerals, weddings, and church staff relationships (or ministry staff relationships). Note: if you are married, then your philosophy paper must conclude with a discussion of getting your family adjusted at a new church field (or in a new ministry area or church). Format: same as the theology paper, except that biblical references are not to be cited and discussed. A cover page is to be used, but do not include an intervening blank page. Philosophy paper is due on BlackBoard November 18 by midnight.

4. Select and complete a Major Ministry Assignment from one of the following options:

A. Option One: Documented Ministry Research Essay. Complete a topic-based essay of 15-20 double-spaced pages, using parenthetical references. The paper topic is to be entitled: “WHAT I NEEDED TO LEARN ABOUT PASTORAL MINISTRY THIS SEMESTER” (or entitled: WHAT I NEEDED TO LEARN ABOUT MINISTRY SHEPHERDING THIS SEMESTER), with the title placed on the cover page and first essay page. Students may select one or more topics to research from the course topics discussed in class. Note: the selected bibliography of the essay must list a minimum of 8 print sources (books, journals, or periodicals) and a minimum of 2 Internet sources which have informed your knowledge of the topic researched. Please note: all bibliography entries must be cited in the essay as parenthetical references.

B. Option Two: Pastoral Ministry Handbook—specifications: Handbook assignments will include eight typed prayers, two wedding ceremonies, four funeral services with sermon briefs, a quarterly sample church calendar, a plan of preaching for four weeks (with sermon briefs), and eight orders of worship.

The Major Ministry Assignment is due on BlackBoard December 2 by midnight.

EXAMS

There will be a Mid-term Exam September 30 (due on Blackboard by midnight) and a Final Exam December 2 (due on Blackboard by midnight). The Exams will be timed, Blackboard exams. The Mid-term Exam will cover class lectures and discussions as well as related chapters from The Pastor’s Handbook One Size Doesn’t Fit All and The New Guidebook for Pastors. The Final Exam will involve class lectures and discussions as well as related chapters from The Pastor’s Handbook and The New Guidebook for Pastors. The professor will give instructions for preparing for the Mid-term and Final Exam.

Evaluation of Grade

Congregational Analysis	15%	September 23
Mid-Term Exam	15%	September 30
Theology Paper	15%	October 28
Philosophy Paper	15%	November 18
Major Ministry Assignment	20%	December 2
Final Exam	20%	December 2

Participation in class is mandatory.

Absences, Make-up Exams, and Late Assignments:

Students should consult the current NOBTS Catalog for the Seminary policy on class absences. When emergencies exist, the student may petition the Academic Advisor for permission to remain in class with excessive absences.

Assignments turned in past the date and time due will incur a late penalty of ten points, per week, which will be deducted from the assignment grade. Assignments will not be accepted more than one week past the date due without permission from the professor. Assignments must be properly submitted on BlackBoard.
