Mission Statement

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and Leavell College prepare servants to walk with Christ, proclaim His truth, and fulfill His mission.

Course Description

This course will aid students to develop competency in gospel ministry in a semester-length learning experience that involves the student in practical ministry with an academic professor and an approved on-site mentor. The student will experience a variety of ministry situations and opportunities in which they will learn and apply principles of ministry under the guidance of a faculty member and on-site mentor.

Student Learning Outcomes

By the end of this course, the student will:

1. understand selected principles and practices in the area of gospel ministry.
2. value the role and functions of gospel ministry in the context of the local church and/or parachurch organizations.
3. demonstrate skills and acceptable proficiency in selected functions of gospel ministry.

Course Methods

The course will emphasize a learning experience through the practical application of principles of gospel ministry under the guidance of an on-site mentor. Lecture presentations and online resources will be utilized to teach course concepts and methodologies. Writing assignments and faculty interaction will be required in addition to interaction with other students in online forums.

Textbooks

The student will select one of the following required textbooks in the area of mentoring:

Anderson, Keith R., and Randy D. Neese. Spiritual Mentoring: A Guide for Seeking and Giving Direction. Downers Grove: InterVarsity, 1999.

Thomas, Scott, and Tom Wood. Gospel Coach: Shepherding Leaders to Glorify God. Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 2012.

The student will select two of the following required textbooks focused more generally in the area of gospel ministry:

Early, Dave, and Ben Gutierrez. Ministry Is: How to Serve Jesus With Passion and Confidence. Nashville: B & H Academic, 2010.

Keller, Timothy. Center Church: Doing Balanced, Gospel-Centered Ministry in Your City. Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 2012.

Merida, Tony. Faithful Preaching: Declare Scripture with Responsibility, Passion, and Authenticity. Nashville: Broadman & Holman Publishers, 2009.

Ogden, Greg, and Daniel Meyer. Leadership Essentials: Shaping Vision, Multiplying Influence, Defining Character. Downers Grove, IL: InterVarsity Press, 2007.

The student will select two of the required textbooks from one of the designated categories focused more specifically in areas of gospel ministry. Designated categories are: Pastoral/Personal/Corporate Evangelism, Pastoral Ministry and Chaplaincy, Pastoral Counseling, Pastoral Theology, and Preaching.

Students enrolled in the course for the second time must select books that were not read during the completion of the first course.

Course Requirements

1. Reading Assignments and Book Critiques: The student will select one book from the first list of books specific to mentoring, two books from the second list of books specific to gospel ministry, and two books from a category in the third list of books (for a total of 5 books). The books should be books that the student has not previously read. The student will write a two page single-spaced critique on each book, answering the following questions:

- a. What is a concise summary of the text?
- b. What is the significance of this text concerning ministry?
- c. What are one or more significant developments in the text concerning ministry?
- d. What, if any, criticism can be made of the text's usefulness in understanding ministry?

Each analysis should have a cover page and provide a correct bibliographic listing of the book with its associated annotations.

The critique of the required textbook in the area of mentoring is due August 30.

The first critique of the required textbooks focused more generally in the area of gospel ministry is due September 13.

The second critique of the required textbooks focused more generally in the area of gospel ministry is due September 27.

The first critique of the required textbooks from a category in the third list of books is due October 18. (See pages 6-7 below for categories.)

The second critique of the required textbooks from a category in the third list of books is due November 1.

2. Mentorship Hours and Meetings: The student will be required to fulfill the requirements of the mentorship, including the minimum of 90 hours working in the ministry setting during the semester. These specified hours do not include the weekly scheduled times for worship and Bible study. The student will meet with the mentor each week to discuss personal and ministry issues and hours worked. The student will submit weekly reports of the mentorship and ministry experiences. The reports should be two paragraphs with one paragraph devoted to the mentorship experiences of the week and one paragraph devoted to the ministry experiences of the week.

Weekly Reports from the first 7 weeks are due October 1.

Weekly Reports from the second 7 weeks are due December 1.

3. Mentoring Strategy: The student will design a mentoring strategy appropriate to the ministry context in which the student will be serving throughout the semester. The strategy must be 12-15 double-spaced pages. Due November 29.

The strategy paper must include:

- a. Introduction: This must explain the historical background of the church/ministry as extensively as necessary to accurately reflect the church's/ministry's current state. Historical statistics, leadership structure, programming approaches, and overall culture of the church/ministry should be addressed.
- b. Guiding Values: Provide an accurate biblical theology for mentoring/discipleship that serves as the basis for any efforts to mature the local church/ministry. Be as comprehensive as possible to address the church/ministry, mission, and vision.
- c. Strategy: This will be the most comprehensive section (at least 4 pages of the paper) and should provide a clear pathway for your mentoring/discipleship strategy. Address every aspect that will be involved in the strategy. Determine a reasonable but urgent timeline and provide details that coincide with the timeline.
- d. Evaluation: How will you know when you have accomplished the goal? Provide a process of immediate and on-going evaluation. Who? How? When? What tools will you use?
- e. Reflection: Based on what you have learned through this project, will you seek to execute this strategy? Explain the opportunities that are open to this strategy or the obstacles that contest this strategy and what is your plan to lead the church/ministry to this critical point of change?

4. Ministry Journal: The student will keep an updated ministry journal with 2-3 submissions each week. Each submission should be two paragraphs in length. Experiences from the 90 hours of ministry can be shared here. Due December 1.

5. Reflection Paper: The student will write a reflection paper, reflecting over the previous semester and noting insights gleaned, positive experiences, and negative experiences. The paper must be 4-5 single-spaced pages. Due December 1.

6. Online Learning Units and Discussion: The student will complete the online units according to the schedule provided by the professor. Video, case-studies, PowerPoint presentations, and group presentations will be utilized. Students will interact with fellow students and the professor through discussion board on Blackboard.

Netiquette: appropriate online behavior

Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online on the Discussion Board. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity is expected at all times in the online environment.

Help for Writing Papers at “The Write Stuff”

NOBTS maintains a Writing Center designed to improve English writing at the graduate level. Students can receive writing guides, tips, and valuable information to help in becoming a better writer.

Plagiarism on Written Assignments

NOBTS has a no tolerance policy for plagiarism. Plagiarism in certain cases may result in expulsion from the seminary. See the NOBTS Student Handbook and Graduate Catalog for definition, penalties, and policies associated with plagiarism. Students are given the task of writing in order to help them learn how to think critically about the ideas of others and to present the results of their analysis in a readable form. Plagiarism defeats these purposes by cheating the student out of an opportunity to grow. Plagiarism is a failure to distinguish between the work of the student and the work of others, either intentionally or unintentionally. Students that plagiarize will be reported to the Dean of Students and a grade of “F” will be assigned. Remember the words of the proverb: “Whoever walks in integrity walks securely, but he who makes his ways crooked will be found out” (Prov 10:19).

Disclaimer

Flexibility is a critical attitude to ministry faithfulness. Therefore, the student will be expected to keep a good attitude when things change. This independent study proposes a course of study for a given time period. However, occasionally things change. The professor reserves the right to adjust the syllabus when he reasonably thinks that doing so will enhance the learning experience of the student.
