Mission Statement

The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Core Value Focus

Each year we focus on one of our core values which includes: Doctrinal Integrity, Spiritual Vitality, Mission Focus, Characteristic Excellence, and Servant Leadership. The core value focus for the 2014-15 academic year is Spiritual Vitality.

Course Description

This course is designed to augment the student's grasp of Greek grammar as presented in the introductory course and to advance the student's understanding of the exegetical significance of New Testament Greek. Intermediate Greek, while helpful to any student wishing to go further in understanding New Testament Greek, is required for language track students. Intermediate Greek Grammar for Exegesis is a prerequisite for Advanced Greek Exegesis; Advanced Greek Grammar; Readings in Hellenistic Literature; and Textual Criticism of the Greek New Testament.

Student Learning Outcomes

- Students should understand the categories and functions of Greek grammar
- Students should gain an increased appreciation for how the study of Greek enhances Biblical interpretation
- Students should acquire the ability to translate most any text in the Greek New Testament and apply this analysis to sound interpretation of the text

Required Texts

1. James A. Brooks and Carlton L. Winbery. A Morphology of New Testament Greek: A Review and Reference Grammar. Lanham, MD: University Press of America, 1994.

OR

William D. Mounce. The Morphology of Biblical Greek. Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 1994.

2. Gerald L. Stevens. New Testament Greek Intermediate: From Morphology to Translation. Eugene, OR: Cascade Books, 2008.

3. Warren C. Trenchard. Complete Vocabulary Guide to the Greek New Testament. Rev. ed. Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 1998.

4. United Bible Society's 4th Rev. ed. of The Greek New Testament with Dictionary

Course Requirements

- The student will read the required texts for the course
- The student will read, translate, and locate selected biblical passages
- The student will record themselves quoting a memory verse and memory passage in Greek
- The student will take a total of ten vocabulary quizzes based on word frequency lists in Trenchard
- The student will take three sectional exams, the last of which will be the final
- The student will participate in threaded discussions in a meaningful way. Various grammatical and exegetical topics will be posted for interaction.

Course Evaluation

Blackboard Discussions – 20%

Translation and Location – 20%

Vocabulary Quizzes and Recordings – 30%

Sectional Exams & Final – 30%

Netiquette Statement on Appropriate Online Behavior

Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online on the Discussion Board. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity will be expected at all times in the online environment.

Preferred Contact Method

The best way to contact the professor is through e-mail. Students can expect a response within 24 hours except on weekends.

Extra Credit

Students may earn extra points on their quiz average and final average. See Unit 6 and Unit 12 for extra credit opportunities.

Getting Started (Intro-Week)
