Online Course – Summer 2016

Dr. Dennis Cole rdcole@nobts.edu

Dr. Cole's Grader: Andy Nance andydnance@gmail.com

The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Course Description

Research includes historical background and description of the Qumran cult and problems relating to the significance and dating of the Scrolls. Special emphasis is placed on a theological analysis of the non-biblical texts of the Dead Sea library on subjects such as God, man, and eschatology. Meaningful comparisons are sought in the Qumran view of sin, atonement, forgiveness, ethics, and messianic expectation with Jewish and Christian views of the Old and New Testaments as well as other Interbiblical literature.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Read and analyze history of the Qumran community, the discovery, history of analysis, and publication of the scroll material, and the critical internal and external issues.
2. Read available translations of the Dead Sea Scrolls and interpret the contents in light of current research in Biblical and historical studies.
3. Examine the importance of the Dead Sea Scrolls for the study of the text of the Old Testament and the historical background of the New Testament.
4. Research general and technical subjects relative to the Dead Sea Scrolls.

CORE VALUES

Our Core Values

The seminary has five core values. The focal core value for 2015-2016 is Mission Focus. This course supports the five core values of the seminary.

Doctrinal Integrity: Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. Our confessional commitments are outlined in the "Articles of Religious Belief" and the "Baptist Faith and Message 2000."

Spiritual Vitality: We are a worshipping community emphasizing both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary family for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word.

Mission Focus: We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Characteristic Excellence: What we do, we do to the utmost of our abilities and resources as a testimony to the glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
