Mission Statement

The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Core Value Focus

The seminary has five core values: Doctrinal Integrity, Spiritual Vitality, Mission Focus, Characteristic Excellence, and Servant Leadership. The core value focus for this academic year is Doctrinal Integrity—Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. Our confessional commitments are outlined in the Articles of Religious Belief and the Baptist Faith & Message 2000.

Curriculum Competencies

All graduates of NOBTS are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in each of the following areas: Biblical Exposition, Christian Theological Heritage, Disciple Making, Interpersonal Skills, Servant Leadership, Spiritual and Character Formation, and Worship Leadership. The course will address the competencies of biblical exposition, spiritual and character formation, interpersonal skills, and worship leadership.

Course Description

In this course, videotaped sermons preached by students will serve as the basis for a study of preaching content, structure, style, and delivery. Prerequisite: PREA5300 Proclaiming the Bible.

Student Learning Outcomes

By the end of the course, the student will:

1. Be able to apply homiletical concepts, principles, and resources helpful for effective oral interpretation of Scripture, sermon construction, and sermon delivery;
2. Value Christian proclamation as a vital part of personal ministry;

3. Demonstrate acceptable proficiency in performing Christian proclamation with the aid of an instructor or course resources, whether as one called to preach or as one with some other Christian calling.

Embedded Assignment

The New Testament sermon presentation is an embedded assignment that will be completed by all students for all sections of this course. The grading rubric for this assignment is attached to the syllabus (p. 18). Please complete the assignment according to the syllabus (rf., p. 3) and the grading rubric.

Textbooks

The following textbooks are required (will be cited in class notes and/or in assignments):

Fasol, Al. A Complete Guide to Sermon Delivery. Nashville: B & H Publishers, 1996.

Heisler, Greg. Spirit-Led Preaching. Revised ed. Nashville: B & H Academic, 2018.

McDill, Wayne V. The Moment of Truth. Nashville: B & H Publishers, 1999.

The following textbooks are optional (i.e., will be helpful in sermon development and delivery):

Arthurs, Jeffrey D. Devote Yourself to the Public Reading of Scripture. Grand Rapids: Kregel, 2012.

York, Herschael W., and Bert Decker. Preaching with Bold Assurance. Nashville: B & H Publishers, 2003.

Course Teaching Methodology

Lectures will be utilized to review and teach important fundamentals about sermon construction, delivery, oral interpretation, and voice, as well as to present and discuss applicable print and other resources. Writing assignments will be required to facilitate experiential learning and skills development in sermon building and communication. Student preaching, feedback, and group discussions will be used to promote personal insights about oral interpretation and sermon delivery. The preaching laboratory and student self-study will be important instructional components. Listener feedback forms and personal critique forms will be utilized to aid personal analysis in assessing preaching competency needs and strengths of students in sermon construction and delivery.

Course Requirements and Schedule

Students are required to:

1. Submit a three-page (or less) single-spaced annotated analysis for the three required textbooks: i.e., the required textbooks by Fasol, Heisler, and McDill. Each book analysis should give a correct bibliographic listing of the book with its associated annotations, which answer the following questions:

- a. What is a two-paragraph (or less) summary of the book?
- b. What is one (or more) helpful feature(s) of the book for Christian proclamation?
- c. What is one difficulty, deficiency, or limitation in using the book for Christian proclamation?

This one analysis on the three textbooks should be submitted with a cover page on Blackboard by Midnight CST on Tuesday, April 9, 2019.

2. Prepare and preach in class on the assigned day one devotional presentation of ten to twelve minutes in duration, based on an Old Testament text (selected by the student from any of the following Old Testament books: Genesis through Psalms). Each student will provide the professor a sermon brief of his devotional message, following the format of the rhetorical sermon brief form in this syllabus (other formats will not be accepted). Students should dress appropriately for the preaching chapel setting. A recording of each student's devotional presentation will be made available on a course YouTube channel. The student will utilize this recording in preparing his Personal Critique/Feedback Evaluation of his message.

3. Prepare and preach in class on the assigned day one sermon presentation based on a New Testament text (selected by the student from any of the Gospels, Matthew through John, or from Acts). The sermon presentation is neither to exceed eighteen minutes nor to be less than fifteen minutes in duration. The sermon delivered is to be a rhetorical sermon outlined on the sermon brief form in this syllabus. Each student will provide the professor a sermon brief of his NT sermon. Students should dress appropriately for the preaching chapel setting. A recording of each student's sermon presentation will be made available on a course YouTube channel. The student will utilize this recording in preparing his Personal Critique/Feedback Evaluation of his message.

4. Complete:

a. An Audience Preaching Feedback Form following each student's OT devotional and NT sermon presentations in class. The document will be made available in class for each student to copy the required number of forms for all preaching presentations. Upon completion, all students will submit their Feedback Forms to the student or students who preached that particular day.

b. A Personal Critique/Feedback Evaluation Form for each of the student's two presentations. The document will be made available in class for reproduction by each student.

5. Take a final exam. The final exam will be a take home, open-book exam and will cover course notes, the required course texts, and reflection on the personal presentations and feedback given. The exam is due by Thursday, May 16, 2019 at 11:00 AM.

Evaluation of Grade

All course objectives will be evaluated through the grading of the annotated analysis assignment, Old Testament devotional presentation, New Testament sermon presentation, personal critique/feedback evaluation, and final examination.

The student's final grade will be determined as follows:

1. Annotated textbooks analyses	25%
2. OT devotional presentation & personal critique/evaluation	25%
3. NT sermon presentation & personal critique/evaluation	30%
4. Final examination	20%

Late Assignments Penalty

Assignments turned in past the date due will incur a late penalty of ten points, which will be deducted from the assignment grade. Assignments will not be accepted more than one week past the date due (but assignments may be submitted before the due date). All assignments must be submitted as specified.
