Mission Statement

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and Leavell College prepare servants to walk with Christ, proclaim His truth, and fulfill His mission.

Core Value Focus

The seminary has five core values: Doctrinal Integrity, Spiritual Vitality, Mission Focus, Characteristic Excellence, and Servant Leadership. The core value focus for this academic year is Spiritual Vitality: We are a worshiping community emphasizing both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary family for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word.

Curriculum Competencies

NOBTS faculty members realize that all ministers need to develop specific competencies if they are going to have an effective ministry. To increase the likelihood of NOBTS graduates having an effective ministry, the faculty developed a competency-based curriculum after identifying seven essential competencies necessary for effective ministry. All graduates are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in all of the following areas:

- 1. Biblical Exposition: to interpret and communicate the Bible accurately.
- 2. Christian Theological Heritage: To understand and interpret Christian theological heritage and Baptist polity for the church.
- 3. Disciple Making: To stimulate church health through mobilizing the church for missions, evangelism, discipleship, and church growth.
- 4. Interpersonal Skills: To perform pastoral care effectively, with skills in communication and conflict management.
- 5. Servant Leadership: To serve churches effectively through team ministry.
- 6. Spiritual and Character Formation: To provide moral leadership by modeling and mentoring Christian character and devotion.
- 7. Worship Leadership: To facilitate worship effectively.

The curriculum competencies addressed in this course are: biblical exposition, spiritual and character formation, interpersonal skills, spiritual and worship leadership.

Course Description

In this course, videotaped sermons preached by students will serve as the basis for a study of preaching content, structure, style, and delivery. Prerequisite: PREA5300 Proclaiming the Bible.

Student Learning Outcomes

By the end of the course, the student will:

1. Be able to apply homiletical concepts, principles, and resources helpful for effective oral interpretation of Scripture, sermon construction, and sermon delivery;
2. Value Christian proclamation as a vital part of personal ministry;
3. Demonstrate acceptable proficiency in performing Christian proclamation with the aid of an instructor or course resources, whether as one called to preach or as one with some other Christian calling.

Course Teaching Methodology

Online content notes and other instructional methods will be utilized to review and teach important fundamentals and principles about sermon construction, delivery, oral interpretation, and voice, as well as to present and discuss applicable print and other resources. Writing assignments will be required to facilitate experiential learning and skills development in sermon building and communication. Student preaching, feedback, and group discussions will be used to promote personal insights about oral interpretation and sermon delivery. The online preaching laboratory and student self-study will be important instructional components. Listener feedback forms and personal critique forms will be utilized to aid personal analysis in assessing preaching competency needs and strengths of students in sermon construction and delivery.

Embedded Assignment

The New Testament sermon presentation is an embedded assignment that will be completed by all students for all sections of this course. The grading rubric for this assignment is attached to the syllabus (p. 31). Please complete the assignment according to the syllabus (rf., p. 3) and the grading rubric.

Textbooks

The following textbooks are required (will be cited in class notes and/or in assignments):

Fasol, Al. A Complete Guide to Sermon Delivery. Nashville: Broadman & Holman Publishers, 1996.

Heisler, Greg. Spirit-Led Preaching. Nashville: B&H Publishing, 2007.

McDill, Wayne V. The Moment of Truth. Nashville: Broadman & Holman Publishers, 1999.

York, Herschael W., and Bert Decker. Preaching with Bold Assurance. Nashville: Broadman & Holman Publishers, 2003.

Course Requirements

Students are required to:

1. Submit a one-page single-spaced annotated analysis for each of the four books: i.e., the required textbooks by McDill, Fasol, Heisler, and York and Decker. Each analysis should give a correct bibliographic listing of the book with its associated annotations, which answer the following questions:
 - a. What is a two-paragraph (or less) summary of the book?
 - b. What is one (or more) helpful feature(s) of the book for Christian proclamation?
 - c. What is one difficulty, deficiency, or limitation in using the book for Christian proclamation?

Each analysis should have a cover page. Each analysis should be a complete single-spaced page of content.

The assignments should be completed and posted to the Assignment Menu labeled in each session according to the following schedule: McDill- Session 4, Fasol- Session 5, Heisler- Session 6, York and Decker- Session 7

Each of the above sessions will have a discussion board question for the student to answer concerning the book. The student will also be required to make a response to at least one of the threads posted by other members of the class.

2. Prepare and record one devotional presentation of ten to twelve minutes in duration based on an Old Testament passage (selected by the student from any of the following Old Testament books: Genesis through Psalms), The student is also to post as sermon brief on the Assignment menu as in the format of the rhetorical sermon brief form in this syllabus. You will post the devotional and brief according to the group assigned by the professor.

Students will upload the devotion on BlackBoard under the Assignment Menu. Instructions for this process will be listed in a document under Course Documents entitled “Instructions for Uploading devotion and sermon on BlackBoard.” This devotion is to be presented before an audience, preferably at least a dozen people. While not required to be in a church building setting, nonetheless, students are encouraged to do so in order to have higher quality video equipment and to give students additional experience in the local church setting. Students should dress appropriately for the particular venue. The video should be framed to show the student’s posture and movement while speaking but also close enough to be able to discern how gestures and facial expressions coincide with the content of the message.

3. Prepare and video tape one preaching presentation of a New Testament passage (selected by the student from any of the Gospels: Matthew through John or from Acts). The preaching presentation is neither to exceed eighteen minutes nor to be less than fifteen minutes in duration. The sermon delivered is to be a rhetorical sermon outlined on the sermon brief form in this syllabus. The sermon brief (according to the example in this syllabus) must be posted at the same time that the sermon video is uploaded. Students should dress appropriately for the particular venue. In other words, dress should be what is normally worn in the regular worship service or event in which the student would normally be participating. You will post the sermon and brief according to the group assigned by the professor.

The student is to present this message in a local church setting. The message does not have to be in a regular service but may be a specially scheduled event. A minimum of at least twelve people (preferably twenty or more) must be present. In addition to providing the students with the critically important experience of speaking in the local church setting, the aim is to have a high quality video and a more consistent location for the presentation and the evaluation. The video should be framed to show the student’s posture and movement while speaking but also close enough to be able to discern how gestures and facial expressions coincide with the content of the message. The video is to be uploaded according to the instruction document in Course Documents and according to the schedule posted for the order of student sermon presentations (Under Course Documents). The student should post the video and sermon brief under the Assignments Menu.

Note: The New Testament sermon presentation is an embedded assignment that will be completed by all students for all sections of this course. The grading rubric for this assignment is attached to the syllabus (p. 31). Please complete the assignment according to the syllabus and the grading rubric.

4. Complete:

a. An audience preaching feedback form following each student’s presentation. The document is available under the Feedback Forms Menu (“Homiletics Feedback Form”). All students will turn in one audience feedback form on each student presentation and upload it under the Assignment Menu on the due date listed. They will need to label it according to the full name of the student presenter that they are evaluating. As with the traditional classroom feedback forms, the form will be anonymous, but the BlackBoard system will notify the professors that each student has uploaded a feedback form on all students’ presentations. Forms are due before the next session begins.

b. A personal critique/feedback evaluation form for the student’s two classroom presentations. The document (“Summary Critique Form”) is available under the Feedback Forms Menu. This form must be sent to the professors via the Assignment Menu on the due date listed on the student preaching schedule document under Course Documents.

5. Take a final exam. The final exam will cover class notes, the required course texts, and reflection on the personal presentations and feedback. The exam will be posted online and is due to be posted under the Assignment Menu for session eight.

Evaluation

All course objectives will be evaluated through the grading of the annotated analysis, devotional presentation, preaching presentation, critique/feedback evaluation, and final examination. Responses on discussion boards and blogs should adhere to the rules of grammar. The responses should not include the use of abbreviations and texting type responses.

The student's final grade will be determined as follows:

1. Annotated textbooks analyses	20%
2. Discussion Board Participation	10%
3. Devotional presentation/critique/evaluation and responses	20%
4. Preaching presentation/critique/evaluation and responses	30%

Academic Honesty Policy: All graduate and undergraduate NOBTS students, whether on-campus, internet, or extension center students, are expected to adhere to the highest Christian standard of honesty and integrity when completing academic assignments for all courses in every delivery system format. The Bible provides our standard for academic integrity and honesty. This standard applies whether a student is taking tests, quizzes, exams, writing papers, completing Discussion Boards, or any other course requirement.

Assignment Formatting: Unless otherwise noted, all assignments are to follow the NOBTS Style Guide (see page 7 of the course syllabus). The latest edition of the Turabian Manual may be consulted for any issues not addressed in the Style Guide. All written assignments must be Word documents, written in third person unless otherwise instructed, and created in 12 pt. Times New Roman font.

Absences, Make-up Work, and Late Assignments: Students should consult the current NOBTS Catalogue for the Seminary policy on class absences. When emergencies exist, the student may petition the Academic Advisor for permission to remain in class with excessive absences. Students also are reminded that being tardy to class can result in absences being recorded (three times tardy will be recorded as one class period absence) and that students, not the professor, are responsible for having their presence in class recorded on the class roll when they are tardy in attendance.

Unless otherwise noted, assignments are due by Midnight CST on the Sunday of the specific weeks/units listed. Those assignments turned in past the date and time due will incur an initial late penalty of ten points followed by an additional point each day it is late, which will be deducted from the assignment grade. Assignments will not be accepted more than one week past the date due without permission.

Netiquette: Appropriate Online Behavior: Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity is expected at all times in the online environment.

Disclaimer

Flexibility is a critical attitude to ministry faithfulness. Therefore, students will be expected to keep a good attitude when things change. This syllabus proposes a course of study for a given time period. However, occasionally things change. The professors reserve the right to adjust the syllabus when they reasonably think that doing so will enhance the learning experience of the students.

Withdrawal from the Course: The administration has set deadlines for withdrawal. These dates and times are published in the academic calendar. Administration procedures must be followed. You are responsible to handle withdrawal requirements. A professor can't issue a withdrawal. You must do the proper paperwork to ensure that you will not receive a final grade of "F" in the course if you choose not to attend once you are enrolled.
