MISSION STATEMENT

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and Leavell College prepare servants to walk with Christ, proclaim His truth, and fulfill His mission.

SYLLABUS DISTRIBUTION

This syllabus is distributed at the beginning of the semester for review and can be found electronically in the course Blackboard shell and linked from the online Graduate Course Schedule.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed to introduce students to the field of Christian counseling and basic counseling skills. Biblically based foundations and approaches to counseling will be examined. In addition, the class will address skill development and application and will examine counseling issues such as marital and family relationship problems, depression, anxiety, anger, forgiveness and reconciliation, substance abuse problems, and spiritual direction.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

In order to perform counseling effectively with the knowledge and skills necessary, students, by the end of the course, should:

1. Be able to understand the basic foundations and dimensions of biblically-based Christian counseling, including theological, pastoral, historical, scientific, and psychological elements and counseling models.
2. Be able to apply a biblically-based knowledge of pastoral care and counseling to the difficulties commonly faced by church members and their families.
3. Be able to evaluate personal limits in counseling and to know how and when to make appropriate referrals.
4. Be able to communicate effectively using basic counseling skills.

TEACHING METHODS

This course meets once per week in person. Each week you will be asked to interact with different types of materials, including lecture notes, PowerPoint presentations, class texts, videos, exercises or practical activities, and responses from other students.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Examinations:

(Midterm—20%, Final—20%)

Exams will cover material from assigned readings and PowerPoint presentations. They will be posted on Blackboard, along with instructions.

Verbatims: (2)

Two verbatims that deal with a problem or issue will be prepared from conversations with people that may be formal (planned) or informal. Care should be taken to protect the identity of the person(s) and informed consent should be given before the conversation is recorded or reported in writing. Verbatims should be submitted through Black Board and include the following:

1. Introduction: Introductory paragraph identifying the counselee (fictitious name to insure confidentiality). Include a detailed description identifying: age, sex, marital status, significant family members and contacts, personal appearance (facial, physical, emotional demeanor), and other pertinent information.
2. Verbatim: Actual counseling dialogue using the following symbols:

R = counselor; E = Counselee

The verbatims should demonstrate use of the counseling skills covered in class.

3. Evaluation: A summary section with conclusions drawn from the session as well as any follow-up plans. The summary must include a personal evaluation of the session (skills demonstrated, your strengths, limitations, and areas of opportunities), along with a spiritual assessment identifying pertinent biblical principles and areas you believe that God is working in the situation.

NOTE: To aid in the reporting of the session, the counselor may use a recording device with the permission of the counselee. Counselors should immediately erase the recording after transcribing the session—assuring the confidentiality (protection) of the counselee.

Book Review:

Students will write a book review of not less than five pages, excluding cover sheet, of the book The Counsel of Heaven on Earth by Ian F. Jones. The review will be double spaced, in accordance Turabian style. The book review should include (1) a brief summary of content, (2) an evaluation of the strengths and limitations of the work, and (3) its applicability to Christian ministry and counseling (identify the most appropriate audience for the book and whether you would recommend it). See rubric for details. Submit the review on Blackboard.

Research Paper:

Students will write a research essay on a counseling issue of approximately 15 pages in length, not counting cover sheet or bibliography. Please refer to the assignment description in the Blackboard Assignments folder for details and a list of possible research topics. The paper should consist of:

1. An introduction to a counseling topic, including definitions, description and extent of the problem, and significant related issues
2. An exploration of how the mental health field addresses and/or treats this issue (best practices)
3. An exploration of how the Scripture speaks to the issue and how you could integrate Scripture and Christian faith into treatment and ministry
4. A basic plan for how you, as a person in your area of ministry, could address the problem with a counselee and with your larger ministry context (where you minister or plan to minister).

The paper will include a bibliography with a minimum of fourteen (14) references that may include the texts for this course. Possible sources for information include quality books on the subject, counseling texts, academic journal articles, professional organizations dedicated to addressing the problem, Bible commentaries, quality internet articles or sources, etc.—one place to start your search is the syllabus bibliography. Exercise caution in using material found on the internet.

Possible Research Topics: The following topics are generally broad. You may need to narrow the topic in order to cover the material within the requirements of the paper. Students may also choose topics from the chapter headings in the Collins text. The professor must approve other topics.

1. The Use of Scripture in Counseling
2. Marriage Counseling for _____ (You select the issue) _____.
3. Bereavement, Grief and Loss Counseling
4. Problem-Solving and Resolving Conflict in Relationships
5. Ethical Issues for Christian Counselors
6. The Essentials of Pre-Marital Counseling

Course Policies

Reading Assignments

Students are responsible for completing all reading assignments.

Professor's Policy on Late Assignments

All work is due on the assigned date in the syllabus. The grade for late assignments will automatically be reduced by four (4) points per day.

Professor's Availability and Assignment Feedback

The student may contact the professor at any time using the email address provided in the course syllabus or through the Blackboard messaging function. The professor will make every effort to return answers to emailed questions within 24 hours. Assignments requiring grading will be returned to the student within a reasonable period of time. Student feedback on graded assignments will be provided through the Blackboard grading function for each assignment. The student may also email the course grader or instructor with questions regarding grading.

Help for Writing Papers at the NOBTS Writing Center

This is the official NOBTS Writing Center online help site for writing academic papers and essays: <http://www.nobts.edu/writing/default.html> You will discover writing guides, tips, and valuable information to help you become a better writer. Go here for Turabian and APA style helps and guidelines. You will also find language fonts for Greek and Hebrew.

The NOBTS Style Guide is the official style guide for all seminary papers (unless the course specifies a different form and style, such as APA or SBL) and can be found in the course Blackboard shell or online at the Writing Center's page on the seminary website at:
<https://www.nobts.edu/resources/pdf/writing/StyleGuide.pdf>

Academic Honesty Policy

All graduate and undergraduate NOBTS students, whether on-campus, internet, or extension center students, are expected to adhere to the highest Christian standard of honesty and integrity when completing academic assignments for all courses in every delivery system format. The Bible provides our standard for academic integrity and honesty. This standard applies whether a student is taking tests, quizzes, exams, writing papers, completing Discussion Boards, or any other course requirement.

Plagiarism on Written Assignments

NOBTS has a no tolerance policy for plagiarism. Please be aware that plagiarism in certain cases may result in expulsion from the seminary. Refer to the NOBTS Student Handbook <http://www.nobts.edu/resources/pdf/studentservices/NOBTSHandbook.pdf> where the definition, penalties and policies associated with plagiarism are clearly defined.

Extra Credit

Extra credit is not offered in this course. Students with hardships, emergencies, or other situations impacting academic performance are encouraged to contact the professor as soon as possible to explore options appropriate to their specific situations.

Technical Assistance

For assistance regarding technology, consult ITC (504-816-8180) or the following websites:

Netiquette

Netiquette refers to appropriate online behavior in Blackboard or other online discussions. Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online on Discussion Boards or whenever interaction occurs through web, digital, or other electronic medium. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity is always expected in the online environment.

Academic Policies

Academic policies relating to absences, grading scale, final examination schedules, and other topics can be found in the current online catalog: New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary Academic Catalog.

Online Course Reminder/Warning

Online courses are, by nature, a different kind of learning experience than courses taught in the traditional classroom. Because of this structure, this online course is more reading and writing intensive than traditional classroom courses. Rigorous study of the deep things of God can be a rewarding experience for anyone who participates in it, but it also calls for extra diligence and integrity in completing the work. This reality does not mean that an online course cannot be successful in equipping you, the student, for effective, God-honoring ministry. It simply means utilizing a different strategy. Internet courses allow room for independent learners to thrive—to work at a responsible pace, to engage in student-led discussions, and to take ownership of the learning of course content. Note that your instructors are praying for your success.

Policy for Graduating Students

Graduating students are responsible for alerting the professor of your intention to graduate. All of your assignments must be completed by noon (12:00 PM) on the Wednesday prior to commencement exercises.

Student Services

This is a partial list of NOBTS student services available to all students, no matter your delivery system or location. Resource Networking and Clearinghouses

Chosen Families (<http://chosenfamilies.org/>)

A non-profit, charitable organization, providing information to parents, family members, religious leaders and the general public on effective solutions to living in families with hidden disabilities, such as Anxiety, Asperger, ADHD, Autism, Bipolar disorder, Depression, Epilepsy, Learning disabilities, Obsessive Compulsive Disorder, Schizophrenia, Sensory Processing Disorders, and Tourette syndrome.

Purpose & Mission: The purpose of ChosenFamilies.org is to help families living with hidden disabilities become fully included in the body of Christ. Our mission is to provide resources, connections and encouragement to families with hidden disabilities and to educate and provide resources to religious leaders as they minister to families with these needs.

The Biblical Counseling Coalition (<http://biblicalcounselingcoalition.org/>)

Mission: The BCC exists to multiply the ministry of the biblical counseling movement by strengthening churches, para-church organizations, and educational institutions through promoting unity and excellence in biblical counseling.

The Coalition seeks to foster collaborative relationships and to provide robust, relevant biblical resources that equip the Body of Christ to change lives with Christ's changeless truth through the personal ministry of the Word.

New Life Christian Counseling Network (<http://newlife.com/counselors>) (Part of New Life Ministries)

A large network of professional, Christian counselors located throughout the country. The network counselors have gone through an extensive application and credentials verification process. They agree with the New Life Statement of Faith and meet specific professional standards set for members in the counseling network.

Minds Renewed (formerly Transformed Minds): The Consortium for a Christlike Response to Mental Health (transformedmindsinfo.wordpress.com)

Formed in 2013, the consortium works primarily through the internet to "inspire those needing help; inform them of resources available; and provide the connections needed to reach those resources."
