MISSION STATEMENT

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary prepares servants to walk with Christ, proclaim His truth, and fulfill His mission.

COURSE PURPOSE

This purpose for this course is to consolidate translating skills gained in the introductory course and to develop exegetical skills for studying the Greek New Testament.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed to augment the student's grasp of Greek grammar as presented in the introductory course and to advance the student's understanding of syntactical features of New Testament Greek. The course also will strengthen additional exegetical skills by sentence-flow diagramming. Intermediate Greek, while helpful to any student wishing to go further in understanding New Testament Greek, is required for language track students. Intermediate Greek Grammar is prerequisite for Greek Exegesis, Advanced Greek Grammar, and Textual Criticism of the Greek New Testament.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students who complete this course successfully will:

- Understand the vocabulary and grammatical principles needed to translate and interpret the Greek New Testament
- Demonstrate the application of the appropriate principles of grammar and syntax to the translation and exegesis of the Greek New Testament
- Be able to communicate clearly the meaning of selected New Testament passages based on a grammatical exegesis of the Greek text

COURSE TEACHING METHODS

The course will involve the following methodologies:

- The material for each Unit will be introduced in a lecture format.
- Students will read material in the assigned textbooks.
- Students will practice the skills and reinforce the content discussed in class through daily translation assignments and classroom exercises, which will include small and large group activities.

WRITING STYLE GUIDE

Writing assignments should follow the NOBTS/Leavell College Manual of Form and Style (revised August 2019). To access this manual on the seminary website, please use the following link: <https://www.nobts.edu/resources/pdf/writing/StyleGuide.pdf>.

BIBLE SEARCH PROGRAMS

Each student should acquire a Bible Software program and such is required for those in a specific Biblical Studies degree (like the MA in Biblical Studies, or the MDiv in Biblical Studies or Biblical Languages), with the following being recommended by the Biblical Studies Division: Logos and Accordance. For those not majoring in biblical studies or in a biblical studies degree program, a free program from online can be used such as <http://mywsb.com>, <http://crosswire.org>, and <http://www.e-sword.net>. Please consult with the professor if you have questions on this, and know that special discounts on the two major programs are available for NOBTS students.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

1. Vocabulary quizzes will be given on a weekly basis. The quizzes will be based on the lists in Blackboard. See below for the quiz schedule. 25%
2. Students are to submit their original translation of assigned passages. 15%
3. Class participation and translation/parsing. The student should read the pertinent sections in a selected grammar each day. The student also should be able to translate the assigned passages for each day, parsing all words. 10%
4. Mid-Term exam will be given focusing on the material from the first half of the semester. 25%
5. The final exam/assignment will be comprehensive. 25%

Extra Credit Reading

The student may earn a maximum of three (3) points extra credit to be added to the final average by reading the book Linguistics for Students of New Testament Greek by David Alan Black and writing a two page, single spaced critique of the book. The critique must be turned into the professor by last class period. For every day that the critique is late, one point will be subtracted from the extra credit. Points also will be deducted for critiques that are poorly written (bad grammar, etc.). By turning in a critique the student affirms that he/she has read the entire book.

Technical Assistance

For assistance regarding technology, consult ITC (504-816-8180) or the following websites:
