The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Purpose of Course

The purpose of this course is to equip students with a variety of tools for assessing, integrating, and developing discipleship effectiveness in a local church or its ministries. Students will explore the ways Jesus disciplined his followers.

Our Core Values

The seminary has five core values. The focal core value for 2017-2018 is Servant Leadership. This course supports the five core values of the seminary.

Servant Leadership: We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us.

Curriculum Competencies Addressed

NOBTS faculty members realize that all ministers need to develop specific competencies if they are going to have an effective ministry. To increase the likelihood of NOBTS graduates having an effective ministry, the faculty developed a competency-based curriculum after identifying seven essential competencies necessary for effective ministry. All graduates are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in all of the following areas:

Biblical Exposition: to interpret and communicate the Bible accurately.

Christian Theological Heritage: To understand and interpret Christian theological heritage and Baptist polity for the church.

Disciple Making: To stimulate church health through mobilizing the church for missions, evangelism, discipleship, and church growth.

Interpersonal Skills: To perform pastoral care effectively, with skills in communication and conflict management.

Servant Leadership: To serve churches effectively through team ministry.

Spiritual and Character Formation: To provide moral leadership by modeling and mentoring Christian character and devotion.

Worship Leadership: To facilitate worship effectively.

This course will address the following curriculum competencies:

1. Biblical Exposition: biblical rationale for discipling is foundational.
2. Theological and historical perspective: correct doctrinal framework is explored.
3. Servant Leadership: enlistment, training, equipping and encouragement of volunteers are facilitated. Relationship building is a key component to discipling.
4. Disciple Making: the basic model of student ministry involves replication of discipling. This is the main purpose for the class.

Course Catalog Description

Discipling is one of the tasks identified by Jesus in the Great Commission. However, in local churches the difficulty in finding a “time slot” to offer a program for discipling has been one of several challenges in fulfilling the task to make disciples. This course takes a fresh look at the biblical role of discipling for the purpose of equipping students to creatively explore ways to address the purpose of disciple making as Jesus commanded. Students will explore the biblical content of discipling, the biblical mandate for discipling, and possible contemporary expressions of “doing” discipling in the church. Specific attention is given to the equipping of families of students to disciple teenagers within the context of the family.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the course, the student will be able to:

Cognitive:

- Explore how the Bible is our textbook to discipling
- Describe and explain the role of personal discipling growth

Affective:

- Discuss how spiritual disciplines are used by God to shape spiritual formation.
- Grasp the urgency of equipping parents to disciple their children

Psychomotor:

- Enlist, train, and encourage adult volunteers who will help in the implementation of a discipling model. Build relationships with students, youth workers, and parents of teenagers.
- Articulate a vision and describe a strategy for discipling for students and their families in the context of the local church.

Course Requirements

1. Discipleship Essay (20%)

Based upon the Allen Jackson article, "Theology and Youth Ministry, Then and Now" in Journal of Baptist Theology and Ministry Spring 2016 (posted on Blackboard), each student will write a 4-5 page essay entitled, "The Biblical Basis for Discipleship with Youth and Families." After reading the text, and staying close to the biblical theme, organize your essay into three parts:

- a. Information – From a biblical perspective, what did you learn about discipleship?

- b. Urgency – Based upon your reading, why is discipleship important?
- c. Action – Based upon biblical information in the article as well as in your personal opinion, what should we do as a church?

Due: September 10

2. Discipleship Essentials. (5% each, 20% total)

The essential elements of discipleship are

- a. Scripture Memorization Each student will memorize key discipleship passages according to the assignments in the syllabus. Students will complete a report on Blackboard concerning memorization of scripture. Due September 17 & 24
- b. Personal Testimony You will upload a YouTube link to Blackboard, linking a video you recorded regarding your conversion and call to ministry. Due October 1.
- c. Evangelistic Presentation You will write a script of a presentation of the gospel that is: 1) in your own personality and voice and 2) faithful to Scripture. Length of 2-3 pages is expected. Due November 5.
- d. Bible Study Preparation You will research a Bible study method (e.g. topical, verse-by-verse, inductive, etc.) and write a 2-3 page sample study using the selected method.

Due: November 19.

3. Critical Book Review (15%)

Reading on discipleship is foundational to thinking about discipling with youth and families in the church. Pick a book from the recommended reading (or present one of your choosing to the professor for approval) and prepare a critical book review. See Blackboard for “How to Prepare a Critical Book Review.” Due: October 15

4. Synthesis Paper (25%)

Based on what you learned, type an 10-12 page paper describing your “heroes” in discipleship, your “non-negotiables” regarding discipleship, your personal conviction for discipling, and your suggestions for a strategy to facilitate discipleship content and relationships in a local church. Due: December 3

5. Final Exam (10%)

Complete a final examination. Due: December 10.

6. Blackboard Discussion (10%)

Each student is expected to participate in online interaction through the Blackboard Discussion Board. This is your class participation grade. Due: Weekly.

Absences

In the online format, attendance is assessed through completed assignments for each unit: Blackboard discussion and assignment submission by the deadline.

Reading Assignments

Students are responsible for completing all reading assignments.

Professor's Policy on Late Assignments

All work is due on the assigned date and time in the syllabus. Assignments are due before midnight on the day they are due. Late assignments will be penalized an initial 10 percent penalty and one percent for each day after the due date. No assignments will be accepted more than two weeks after the original due date. Submit all assignments electronically on Blackboard. Do not send files as attachments via email to the professor.

Exam Policy

When exams are given via Blackboard, students will have a designated amount of time in which to take the exam. There should be no reason for any exams to be missed. If dire illness, personal emergency, or school-sponsored events prevent access to the internet, the student will be responsible for contacting the professor before the exam to secure permission to schedule the exam and to schedule an appointment for a make-up exam. Failure to do so will result in an automatic grade of zero.

Professor's Availability and Assignment Feedback

The student may contact the professor at any time using the email address provided in the course syllabus. The professor will make every effort to return answers to emailed questions within a 24-hour period. Assignments requiring grading will be returned to the student within a reasonable period.

Style and Formatting

All assignments are to be created in Turabian format. All assignments are to be typed, double-spaced with a 12-point Times New Roman font, with 1-inch margins. Include your name, date of submission, and the assignment title on the cover page in correct Turabian format.

Grading Scale

Each student's final grade will be based on your total accumulation of points as indicated under the Assignments and Evaluation Criteria section of this syllabus, according to the grading scale in the NOBTS catalog.

Help for Writing Papers at “The Write Stuff”

NOBTS maintains a Writing Center designed to improve English writing at the graduate level. Students can receive writing guides, tips, and valuable information to help in becoming a better writer. This is the official NOBTS Writing Center help site for writing academic papers and essays: www.nobts.edu/writing/

In addition, the website Grammarly (www.grammarly.com) will help you become a better writer. Eazypaper (www.eazypaper.com) will help you automatically format your sources. Moreover, the YMI resource page (www.youthministryinstitute.org) has several helpful links, including a video to help you create page numbers in Microsoft Word.

Plagiarism on Written Assignments

NOBTS has a no tolerance policy for plagiarism. Plagiarism in certain cases may result in expulsion from the seminary. See the NOBTS Student Handbook for definition, penalties, and policies associated with plagiarism.

Extra Credit

The policy for extra credit in this course is students can submit an additional Book Review for extra credit. The extra book review will not substitute or replace any course assignment. The extra credit assignment is worth up to three points on the final grade.

Academic Policies

Academic policies relating to absences, grading scale, final examination schedules, and other topics can be found in the current graduate online catalog:
http://www.nobts.edu/_resources/pdf/academics/GraduateCatalog.pdf

Policy for Graduating Seniors

Graduating seniors are responsible for alerting the professor of your intention to graduate. All of your assignments must be completed by noon (12:00pm) on the Wednesday prior to commencement exercises.

Special Needs

If you need an accommodation for any type of disability, please email me to discuss any modifications you may need.

Withdrawal from the Course

The administration has set deadlines for withdrawal. These dates and times are published on the academic calendar. Administration procedures must be followed. You are responsible to handle withdrawal requirements. A professor cannot issue a withdrawal. You must complete the proper paperwork to ensure you will not receive a final grade of “F” in the course if you choose not to engage in the online class once you are enrolled.

Hurricane/Severe Weather Evacuation

For up-to-date weather information stay tuned to:

Mandatory Evacuation

Hurricane season lasts from June 1 to November 30. If the Mayor of New Orleans or the President of NOBTS recommends that you leave the city, then do so. If a mandatory evacuation is called, everyone except emergency personnel must leave. Staying on campus is not an option. See the Student Handbook for further information regarding hurricane preparedness, evacuation, and shelter. Since this course is an internet course, any hurricane evacuations will not affect deadlines or course progression.
