Title: Working with Women Whose Husbands Have a Sexual Addiction

Description: This workshop will examine the response of a professional counselor to a wife who comes for counseling because she has discovered her husband has a sexual addiction. Participants will discover helpful guidelines for working with the wife as she deals with this life-impacting problem.

Objectives: Participants will:

1. Be challenged to consider and evaluate typical responses to a woman whose husband has a sexual addiction and how it impacts the marital relationship.
2. Explore guidelines for setting boundaries when there is a sexual addiction.
3. Learn principles for the journey of forgiveness.
