The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Course Description

This second course in systematic theology introduces the student to the doctrines of the work of Christ, salvation and the Christian life, the Holy Spirit, the church, and last things (eschatology). The biblical foundation and the relevant historical developments are considered in developing a comprehensive statement of Christian teaching concerning construction of a Christian understanding of each doctrine. Prerequisite: It is highly suggested that students take Systematic Theology 1 before taking this course.

Core Value

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary has five core values: Doctrinal Integrity, Spiritual Vitality, Mission Focus, Characteristic Excellence, and Servant Leadership. These values shape both the context and manner in which all curricula are taught, with “Spiritual Vitality” especially highlighted in this course.

This Year's Core Value Focus

We are a worshiping community emphasizing both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary family for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word.

Course Objectives

In order to understand and interpret Christian theological heritage and Baptist polity for the church, the student, by the end of the course, should:

1. Be able to apply their knowledge and understanding of the following concepts to interpreting Christian theological heritage and Baptist polity for the church:
 - The processes, methods, assumptions, and worldviews of historical, theological, and philosophical disciplines.
 - The key Christian doctrines of the Person and the work of Christ, the Holy Spirit, salvation, the Church, of the final hope.
2. Value a Christian understanding of doctrine.
3. Respond positively to the idea of respecting the influence of various historical, theological, philosophical traditions, and worldviews.
4. Be ready to articulate and defend evangelical and Baptist positions on specific theological issues.

Biblical Authority

This course operates under the assumption that the Bible is the inspired, totally true and trustworthy Word of God. While history, tradition, and reason play no small role in the theological task, the Bible holds ultimate authority in Christian doctrine and practice. The Baptist Faith and Message (2000) provides the structure of this course's content.

A Note about Web-Based Learning

Web-based courses are, by nature, a different kind of learning experience than courses based in the traditional classroom. This reality does not mean that a web-based course cannot be successful in equipping you, the student, for effective, God-honoring ministry. It simply means utilizing a different strategy. Internet courses allow room for independent learners to thrive—to work at your own pace, to engage in student-led discussions, and to take ownership of the course content. Because of this structure, this web-based course is more reading and writing intensive than traditional classroom settings. Rigorous study of the deep things of God can be a rewarding experience for anyone who participates in it, but it also calls for extra diligence and integrity in completing the work. Note that your instructors are praying for your success.

Required Texts

Erickson, Millard. Christian Theology. 2d ed. Grand Rapids: Baker, 1998. Millard Erickson's text is one of the best contemporary Baptist treatments of Christian doctrine available presently. This textbook is slightly more challenging than Grudem's text because it includes more philosophical and apologetic content. Erickson writes from a modified Calvinistic perspective. The first edition of this book was translated into Korean, and there are two versions are available.

밀라드 에릭슨. 복음주의 조직신학. 상권.중권. 신경수역. 서울: 크리스찬다이제스트, 1995.(한국부 필수교재, 필히 구입요망)

Grudem, Wayne. Systematic Theology. Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 2000.

Grudem's text is a very readable introduction to Christian doctrine. It is also practical and helpful in a number of ways. It includes devotional content, a glossary of terms, and a great bibliography for research papers. Grudem writes from a more traditional five-point Calvinistic perspective. This book is also translated into Korean. (한국부 부교재, 반드시 구입할 필요는 없으나 도움이 됨)

Course Requirements

1. Reading Quizzes (25%)

Students will take weekly quizzes based on the assigned readings from Erickson, Grudem, and Allison. The quizzes draw on key terms, the theological ideas of the authors, and significant figures and movements in the history of theology. Quizzes consist of simple questions and essay questions. Students are strongly encouraged to read ALL of the assigned reading materials before beginning the quiz. These are NOT open-book quizzes.

2. Biweekly Discussion Board Questions (25%)

Students will be required to answer discussion board questions on a biweekly basis. These discussion questions will be based on the assigned reading and additional resources located in Course Documents. Students are required to make at least three (3) substantive posts each week to each question. The first post will be your answer to the question posed. This post should be longer and more detailed than the remaining posts. The other two posts should be offered in response to other student posts. A substantive post is defined as a post that both exhibits a thoughtful response based upon the class material and that, in the case of response posts (see above), furthers the discussion thread by posing new questions or thoughts to which other students may respond. To earn credit, students MUST post their first comment no later than Thursday night to give classmates time to respond.

3. Book Review (25%): Due on Sep 28

All students are required to read and review Luke Timothy Johnson, The Real Jesus. The review should include (1) a bibliography entry, (2) a brief biographical data about the author(s) (e.g., his position, degrees, research interests, and other works), (3) an assessment of the main purpose and/or thesis of the book, (4) a concise summary of the book's contents (NO MORE THAN A THIRD OF THE TOTAL REVIEW SHOULD BE SUMMARY), (5) a thorough critical analysis of the book, (6) a discussion of the relevance of the book to your particular ministry, and (7) a conclusion with a recommendation or dismissal. The reviews should be between 2000-4000 words and should conform to Turabian or SBL style guides. Because book reviews are primarily about one source, use parenthetical citations for the primary text and footnotes only for external sources.

A few questions to consider when preparing for a critical book review: What is the main purpose or thesis of this book? To whom is this book written? Did the author(s) fulfill his or her purpose? What are some of the author's working assumptions (e.g., his or her denominational background, field of research, or view of Scripture)? Does the author provide strong biblical, philosophical, and historical support for his or her positions? Are there any points of contact between this book/writer and other texts read during the course of the semester? How might the content of this book affect ministry in the local church or ministry within your particular calling? Are there any ideas that changed your particular way of thinking on the subject matter at hand? Would you recommend this book to someone else?

- A papers (93-100) clearly state the book’s thesis, successfully and succinctly outline its argument in its own terms, demonstrate advanced critical engagement with the argument and content of the book, make clear and well structured arguments, and exhibit a proficient grasp of grammar, spelling, and style.
- B papers (85-92) clearly state the book’s thesis, show an attempt to understand the book on its own terms and critically reflect on the issues at hand, make arguments, and show sufficiency in grammar, spelling, and style.
- C papers (77-84) state the book’s thesis, present the content of the book, raise preliminary critical questions for further evaluation, limit evaluation to approval or disapproval of the author’s arguments, and make repeated mistakes in grammar, spelling, and style.
- D (70-76) and F (0-69) papers lack evidence of grasping the book’s thesis and content, limit evaluation to preformed judgments without serious consideration of the book’s ideas, contain major grammatical, spelling, and stylistic errors, and demonstrate little or no attempt to proofread.

4. Theological Research Paper (25%): Due on Nov 23

All students are required to write a brief research paper (12-15 double-spaced pages in length) on a particular doctrinal topic/question. Students may choose from the following topics or seek approval from the professor on another topic.

PLEASE READ THE DOCUMENTS IN THE “PAPER WRITING RESOURCES” SECTION BEFORE WRITING—particularly John Frame’s paper “How to Write a Theological Research Paper” and the research paper grading rubric.

A more focused paper is usually a better product than an overly broad paper (e.g., like trying to cover all the doctrine of Christ in ten pages!). Students may select a doctrinal topic and seek to investigate how a particular theologian in history addressed that issue, or one may start with a particular theologian and investigate his or her unique theological perspectives (e.g., Calvin’s understanding of imputation or Karl Barth’s doctrine of inspiration). Students may also feel free to pick one of the doctrinal topics below and offer a biblical, philosophical, and historical analysis of the doctrine.
