

The purpose of the Biblical Teaching Certificate is to provide supplemental training for ministers and local church leaders in biblical interpretation and instruction.

Day/Time	Course Number	Course Name	Professor
Monday	PMUS 1159	Discipling Church Members	Tim Moffett, MDiv
Monday	CEUS 1101	Intro. to Christian Education	Dr. David Jeffrey

Each course has a tuition fee of $50.00, payable the first day of class. In addition, there is a onetime enrollment fee of $25.00. Each course is transferable to the undergraduate program of NOTBS, and worth one semester hour. There are no prerequisites for either of these classes and enrollment is open to any and all who wish to attend. These courses are especially beneficial for those serving in ministry positions that do not have the benefit of formal seminary training, and for lay leaders in the churches that seek to sharpen their skills. The certificate program also serves as an excellent introduction to further theological studies.

Classes meet from March 22 through May 10 at East Bayou Baptist Church, 2234 Kaliste Saloom Rd, Lafayette in the Education Building, on Mondays from 4-6pm and 6-8pm.
