Spring 2013 Registration

Registration for Spring 2013—January Workshops, Spring Semester, Spring Break Workshops, and Red Carpet Week is now open. The schedules are available online, both at the NGA Hub and Birmingham web page and the main campus MASTER schedule. To register, log on to your SelfServe account, click on Registration, and select the appropriate section to begin your registration.

As you prepare to register for spring and summer, make sure you evaluate all the course delivery systems (workshops, hybrid, online, semester-long, special events, New Orleans campus – hybrids, conference classes, etc.) and make the wisest choice based on your degree requirements, financial resources, family dynamics, and ministry & work responsibilities.

Registration is not a simple matter because you must take seriously the care and balance of all facets of your life when you register. Therefore, the multiple delivery systems allow for maximum credit hour achievement by staggering your course workload to keep the other aspects of your life valued. If you have any questions about Graduate courses, email Dr. Anne Windus (ngaadvisor@nobts.edu) or Dr. Angie Bauman (abauman@nobts.edu) and if you have any questions about Leavell College, email Dr. Peter Kendrick (pkendrick@nobts.edu) or Charles Owusu (cowusu@nobts.edu).

NGA Student Focus

Clarence Hampton II is the oldest son of Clarence and Matlean Hampton Sr. A native of Memphis, TN, he relocated to Atlanta, GA and married his lovely wife Sebrena (Pye) Hampton. To this union, three bountiful blessings were born, Alesia, a nursing student at Middle Georgia State College, Clarence III (Tre) an athletic and musical sophomore at Henry County High School, and Alexis an eighth grader at Henry County Middle School who is the current Student Council President, Beta Club member, Band member and Cheerleader.

Clarence accepted the call to the ministry and was licensed to preach the Gospel in January of 1994. He holds a certificate of Theology from the Interdenominational Theological Center, an Associate's Degree in Biblical Studies, and a dual Bachelor's Degree in Biblical Studies and Leadership Administration from Beulah Heights University. He is currently pursuing a Master's of Divinity in Leadership and Administration at the greatest seminary in the world - New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary.

In 2005, he was called as the seventh pastor of the

First Baptist Church of Stewardship. Pastor Hampton has been blessed with many gifts and talents and among these are: anointed Pastor, preacher, teacher, singer/songwriter and visionary. He is affiliated with the New Era State Baptist Convention, Progressive National Baptist Convention and a member of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity.
