April 14th—NAMB Sponsored Conference

NORTH AMERICAN MISSION BOARD

On April 14, 2014 the North American Mission Board will sponsor a conference which focuses on evangelism, culture, and the local church in North America. The rapidly changing culture in North America is presenting special challenges to the local church. Baptisms continue to decline and few believers are actively sharing their faith. What can pastors and church leaders do to address these challenges?

The North American Mission Board (NAMB) is partnering with New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary to offer you a time to hear about NAMB's evangelism strategies that churches can adopt to overcome the challenges they face in evangelizing their communities. Also hear about how some churches are facing these challenges. The Evangelism Leadership Team from NAMB will lead the discussion during lunch and offer a workshop in the hour that follows. Registration is free and now open. The first 200 to register will also receive free lunch. Click HERE to register.

Conference Agenda:

10:30 – 11:30 a.m.
