NGA Faculty Focus

The North GA Hub welcomes Dr. Bong Soo Choi as the Korean Theological Institute Director and a Professor of New Testament and Greek. Dr. Choi has been married to his wife, Tina Choi, for twenty-six years. Together they have two sons.

Chris is the eldest, 25 years old, and serves in the city of Amhurst, VA, as a police officer. Chris is pursuing a Master's degree in Executive Leadership from Liberty University. Daniel, the youngest, is 18 years old and a senior in high school. Tina has worked for NAMB since 1996 in various positions and is currently the Benefits Services Coordinator in Mission Support Group. She holds a MSW degree from University of Pennsylvania.

Dr. Choi completed his PhD from Temple University in Philadelphia. He has also earned a ThM from Princeton Theological Seminary, and an MA and MDiv from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. Dr. Choi has been teaching as an adjunct professor with NOBTS since 2007. Dr. Choi serves as the senior pastor for Sugarloaf Korean Baptist Church in Suwanee, GA.

NGA Staff Focus

The North GA Hub welcomes John Ridley as the Student Services Assistant. John serves as graduate student advisor and leads the hub in the enlistment of new students.

John and his wife Julie will celebrate their 19th anniversary next month. They have two daughters, Rebekah (15) and Jeannie (11), who attend Hebron Christian Academy in Dacula.

Originally from Albany, GA, John is a graduate of Georgia Southwestern State University and Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. Previously, John led the Baptist Collegiate Ministries at East Carolina University, Indiana University Southeast, and LaGrange College. In addition to his role at the NGA Hub, John is also on the BCM staff at Georgia State University.

Away from the Hub, John loves spending time with his family, playing with his Golden Retriever, reading a good book, and watching soccer, especially the US Men's National Soccer Team.
