Mission Statement

The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Course Description

Students are given a theoretical and practical knowledge of the processes involved with the Christian education of youth. An overview of basic youth ministry along with principles of adolescent development are central to the course.

Course Objectives

Students will be able to:

1. Identify and apply teaching styles, educational strategies, and developmental principles that are useful in ministry to youth in the local church context.
2. Demonstrate the ability to integrate educational and developmental principles into the ministry of the local church to youth.
3. Identify and evaluate curriculum and leadership resources available for youth ministries.
4. Articulate the historical movement from a program driven to a purpose driven philosophy regarding youth education in the local church.
5. Describe the roles and responsibilities of youth ministry volunteers and articulate key principles for recruiting and training those volunteers.
6. Demonstrate how youth ministry programming can reflect the five purposes of youth ministry.

Yount, Rick. Created to Learn. Nashville: Broadman and Holman, 1996.

Course Requirements

1. Reading of Texts:

The textbooks will provide a foundation for in-class discussions. I will assume that you have read the Ulmer and Jackson text within the first two weeks of class. Follow the reading plan on the class schedule for the second text. Also, I reserve the right to quiz over reading content.

2. Research Paper:

- a. Write a 5-page (no more and no less) summary paper on the topic of adolescent development. Choose one of the five areas to further explore – physical, mental (cognitive), social, emotion, and spiritual development. You are to use the Understanding text as a base and use at least five other additional sources to focus on the one area of your choosing.
- b. Within the one area of exploration, be specific in what you study. Some examples are seen below, but feel free to branch out.
 - i. Physical adolescent development – development of the teenage brain
 - ii. Mental adolescent development – creative thinking
 - iii. Social adolescent development – friends or family
 - iv. Spiritual adolescent development – What does it mean to rededicate?
 - v. Emotional adolescent development – mood swings of teenage girls
- c. Give particular attention to the differences between younger youth and older youth.

3. Youth Education Observation:

Each student will observe a youth education activity in a church and will submit a written report of the evaluation including the following sections:

- a. The stated or implied purpose & the setting and target audience
- b. A description (diagram) of the physical setting
- c. Description of curriculum or materials used (including publisher)
- d. Leadership information (# of volunteers, training, planning, etc.)
- e. General evaluation of the session you observed
- f. Things you would do differently (and why!!!!)

4. Group Demonstration

Each small group will demonstrate a teaching session utilizing a different youth ministry Bible study resource. Each group will turn in a copy of their teaching plan before the presentation. Evaluation will be made by the professor and the rest of the class based on 4 factors:

- 1) consideration of purpose and target audience,
- 2) clarity of the teaching plan,
- 3) creativity, and
- 4) demonstration of key lesson elements (Connect, Explore, Transform).

Each demonstration should last 30 minutes and will be followed with a debriefing evaluation with the class. Note: The presentations will not be broadcasted via CIV. Instead, a grader will be at each location.

5. Examination:

One midterm exam will be given. One final exam will be given.

Course Evaluation

Research Development Paper	15%
Youth Observation	15%
Group Teaching Demonstration	25%
Midterm Exam	15%
Final Exam	15%
Class Participation/Reading	15%
Total	100%

Grading Policies

- Assignments are due by the beginning of class on day they are due. Students who are absent from class on the day of an assignment are still responsible for turning the assignment in on time. Late assignments will be penalized one letter grade for each class period the assignment is late. Assignments may only be turned in during a class period (unless otherwise specified by the professor)
- For CIV Students, a grader at your location will collect the assignments at the beginning of class and mail them to the YMI Office in New Orleans. Students who are absent from class on the day of an assignment or have late assignments are responsible for mailing assignments to the YMI Office in New Orleans.
- Since exams are given via Blackboard, students will have a 24 hour window in which to take the exam. There should be no reason for any exams to be missed. If dire illness, personal emergency, or school sponsored events prevent access to the internet, the student will be responsible for contacting the professor before the exam to secure permission to schedule the exam and to schedule an appointment for a make-up exam. Failure to do so will result in an automatic grade of 0.
- If you get locked out of an exam, please call ITC (Blackboard Help) at 1-800-NOBTS-01. If you are unable to reach anyone, email the professor. After one lockout, your grade will be penalized one letter grade for each lockout.

Attendance:

Students are expected to attend class sessions. Students missing more than allotted number of class sessions for the semester will automatically receive a final grade of F. Late arrivals will count as ½ of an absence. You are responsible for signing the attendance sheet.

Style

Guidelines for papers submitted in this course are found in current edition of A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations by Kate L. Turabian, which is available in the bookstore.

Formatting:

- All assignments are to be typed, double-spaced with a 12-point font (Times New Roman preferred) and 1-inch margins unless otherwise indicated.
- Be sure to include your name, date of submission and the assignment title on the cover page.
- Be sure to staple all assignment pages together before submission.

Note: Any student with a disabling condition that requires special accommodation (special adaptive equipment, special note-taking arrangements or special test-taking needs) is strongly encouraged to contact the professor at the beginning of the course.

Disclaimer

This syllabus is intended to reflect accurately the learning objectives, instructional format, readings, learning activities, evaluation criteria, policies on late assignments and absences, grading scale, course schedule, reference list, and other information necessary for students to appraise the course. However, during the semester the professor reserves the right to modify any portion of this syllabus as may appear necessary because of events and circumstances that change during the semester.
