SEMINARY PURPOSE STATEMENT

The mission of the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

CORE VALUE FOCUS

The seminary has five core values: Doctrinal Integrity, Spiritual Vitality, Mission Focus, Characteristic Excellence, and Servant Leadership. This course supports the five core values emphasized by the seminary.

The core value for 2013-2014 is Doctrinal Integrity.

Doctrinal Integrity: Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. Our confessional commitments are outlined in the Articles of Religious Belief and the Baptist Faith and Message 2000.

CURRICULUM COMPETENCIES

NOBTS has seven basic competencies that guide our Masters degree programs: Biblical exposition, Christian Theological Heritage, Disciple Making, Interpersonal Skills, Servant Leadership, Spiritual and Character Formation, and Worship Leadership.

This course especially addresses the “Biblical Exposition” competency by means of helping the student learn to interpret the Bible accurately.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to introduce the student to the literature of the New Testament by means of studying both the Biblical text and the historical and cultural factors that shaped it. The historical background, certain aspects of contemporary scholarship, and especially the themes and general teaching of New Testament books will be discussed.

TEXTS

The New Testament (any English translation).

D.A.Carson & Douglas Moo, An Introduction to the New Testament, 2nd. ed. Zondervan, 2005.

Everett Ferguson, Backgrounds of Early Christianity, 3rd ed. Eerdmans, 2003

Bruce Longenecker, The Lost Letters of Pergamum: A Story from the New Testament World, Baker Academic, 2002

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of this course the student should:

- know the basic content of the New Testament and be able to give a brief description of the major themes and emphasis of the New Testament books.
- know the characteristics of the various literary genres in the New Testament and some of the major implications of the genre differences for interpretation.
- have an essential understanding of the New Testament milieu and its importance in interpretation.
- Have a basic familiarity with resources for on-going study of the New Testament.

COURSE TEACHING METHODS

This course is specifically designed for the Hybrid format. Students will be given assignments according to the course schedule below. Students will be expected to complete these assignments and post these assignments in the appropriate section in the “Assignments” page in Blackboard. Students may take no more than two absences, but absences are not advised.

Students will take all quizzes and turn in all chapter discussion question assignments through Blackboard before the beginning of the class period indicated on the schedule. Each class period will consist of group discussions concerning the assigned reading chapters as well as an introduction and additional notes given by the instructor to the coming material.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Class Participation:

Students are expected to participate in class discussions concerning the chapter contents and the chapter discussion questions. Students should be prepared for and involved in these discussions.

Quizzes & Exams:

Students will complete regular quizzes concerning the chapter content as noted in the course schedule. Quizzes will be taken through the “Assignments” page in Blackboard. Students will also take a Mid-Term and Final Exam as indicated on the schedule. The Mid-Term and Final Exams will be distributed and taken in class.

Chapter Discussion Question:

Students are to answer weekly discussion questions in written form as noted in the course schedule. The chapter discussion questions will be given in class and/or posted on Blackboard. Students are to type the question and then answer each question with a thoughtful and informed response. The answers should be one or two paragraphs in length and discussion oriented. One sentence answers are not sufficient. These assignments will be turned in through the “Assignments” page in Blackboard.

Book Report:

A two page, single spaced critique of the book, The Lost Letters of Pergamum is due before the beginning of class on March 5. By submitting a critique, the student is affirming that he or she has read the entire book.

CLASS GRADING

The final grade will be determined as follows:

Book Report	10%
Quizzes	25%

Chapter Discussion Questions	25%
Mid-Term	20%
Final Exam	20%
