The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church.

Core Value Focus:

The seminary has five core values: Doctrinal Integrity, Spiritual Vitality, Mission Focus, Characteristic Excellence, and Servant Leadership. This course supports the five core values emphasized by the seminary.

The core value for 2013-2014 is Doctrinal Integrity. Doctrinal Integrity: Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. Our confessional commitments are outlined in the Articles of Religious Belief and the Baptist Faith and Message 2000.

Curriculum Competencies Addressed:

The Seminary has seven key competencies in its academic program. The key competency addressed in this course is Biblical exposition.

Course Description:

The purpose of this course is to introduce the student to the literature of the New Testament by means of studying both the Biblical text and the historical and cultural factors that shaped it. The historical background, certain aspects of contemporary scholarship, and especially the themes and general teachings of the New Testament books will be discussed.

Learning Objectives:

Knowledge

Students who complete this course successfully should:

- C. K. Barrett, ed. The New Testament Background Selected Documents: Writings from Ancient Greece and the Roman Empire That Illuminate Christian Origins. Rev. ed. San Francisco: Harper, 1995.

Course Design and Methodology:

This course is designed specifically for the Hybrid format course NTEN5300: Exploring the New Testament. Students will be given assignments according to the course schedule below. Students will be expected to complete these assignments and post the assignments in the appropriate section in the “Assignments” page in Blackboard. Students may take no more than two absences, but absences are not advised.

The course is designed with both in-class and internet component and the format of the content coincides with the Lea and Black text book with supplements from the Barrett book. Students will take all quizzes and exams through blackboard before the beginning of the class period as indicated on the course schedule below. Students will also turn in all chapter discussion question assignments through blackboard before the beginning of the class period as indicated on the course schedule below. Each class period will consist of group discussion concerning the chapters and discussion questions listed for that week and the prior week, as well as an introduction given by the instructor to the coming material.

Assignments and Evaluation Criteria:

Class Participation:

Students are expected to participate in class discussions concerning the chapter contents and the chapter discussion questions. The instructor will call on students to lead in class discussion in reference to the discussion questions of the chapters being covered.

Students should be prepared for and involved in class discussions.

Weekly Quizzes, Mid-Term Exam, and Final Exam:

Students will complete weekly quizzes concerning the chapter content before class meeting as noted in the course schedule. The quizzes and exams will be taken through the “Assignments” page in blackboard. All quizzes and exams are closed book.

Chapter Discussion Questions:

Students will answer weekly discussion questions in written form as noted in the course schedule. The chapter discussion questions are found at the end of each chapter in the Lea and Black textbook. Students are to type the question and then answer each question with a thoughtful and informed response. The answers should be at least one paragraph in length, and should be discussion oriented. One-sentence answers are not sufficient. The chapter discussion questions assignment will be turned in through the “Assignments” page in blackboard and discussed in class.

Final Average:

The final grade will be determined as follows:

- 10% Class Participation
- 25% Weekly Quizzes
- 25% Chapter Discussion Questions
- 20% Mid-term Exam
- 20% Final Exam
