

OTHB5300 Introductory Hebrew Grammar – Warner - Monday

Texts may be obtained in hardcopy or digitally. In addition to purchasing texts in hardcopy, these textbooks are also available in digital form through the LOGOS software, which is required for all NOBTS students who take the Biblical Languages. This software is purchased thru the LOGOS company, with a special discount and payment plan for NOBTS students. The first two texts come packaged with the software, at no additional cost. A digital version of the The First Hebrew Primer text may be purchased from LOGOS, or you may purchase a hardcopy of the text from the Bookstore; either is acceptable for this class.

LOGOS Software
Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia
Brown, Driver, and Briggs, A Hebrew and English Lexicon of the Old Testament
Simon, Resnikoff, Motzkin, The First Hebrew Primer, 3rd ed. EKS Publishers

NOTE on First Hebrew Primer: The digital version sold by LOGOS is bundled as the textbook itself plus the Answer Book plus an audio CD. The books are each available in print form as well and the CD may be purchased separately from a bookstore or the publisher. The only thing required for this course is the text itself (however, the audio – available in the Library – has been quite helpful to students and is strongly encouraged). (Mac users should consider hardcopy)
