NGA STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

JOHNSON K. THUO

Am married to Mary W. Kiragu for 17 years. We have three children Benard T. Kiragu, age 16, George K. Kiragu, age 15, deceased, Anngence N. Kiragu, age 10. I came to know Jesus as my personal savior after finishing high school in August 1983 back home in Kenya. In 1984 I received a call to serve God. In 1985 I joined Kapsabet Bible College which took me four years. After graduation in March 1989, I went back to serve God in our church, Africa Inland Church formerly known as Africa Inland Mission Church in Kenya. While in the ministry, I wanted to fulfill the ministry needs that is why I want to pursue theological studies and that is reason why am enrolled to be a student in NOBTS. I came to USA in 2002. We attend Alpharetta First Baptist Church. I work as volunteer in Pastoral Care Ministry - visiting seniors in nursing home and those in their homes. I like to encourage them and pray with them. Also assist the ESOL Ministry in our church. My desire is to pursue preaching ministry, discipleship training & teaching and starting churches after finishing my training. I speak English, Swahili and my vernacular. I like watching soccer, volley ball, athletics, college football, and cooking chapatti.
