This fall the Providence Learning Center is offering
Introduction to Theological German, Part 1

Instructed by Dr. Gary Nolan, this course is the first in a two-part series designed to prepare incoming research doctoral students for the German Proficiency Examination, which will satisfy the nonbiblical language prerequisite for beginning the doctoral program. Part 2 of the series will be offered during the spring 2007 semester.

All students will earn six (6) Continuing Education Units upon completing each part, for a total of twelve (12) CEUs.

Time: Tuesday and Thursday, 6:00-8:30 PM

Location: Hardin Student Center, Room 207

Cost: Part 1: $500.00
Parts 1 & 2: $1,000.00

Price includes instruction and course materials.

Dr. Nolan received his doctorate in Old Testament from NOBTS and has over twenty years of pastoral experience. He is also a graduate of the Ruschlikon Baptist Theological Seminary in Switzerland and has attended the University of Zurich and the Jung Institute in Switzerland.
