Directed Study Proposals

Students who will have completed the qualifying exam by the spring 2011 semester are eligible to take a directed study. If you are considering doing a directed study, you will need to make a preliminary inquiry with the professor with whom you would like to study and then drop by the ReDOC office for information about how to submit a proposal.

Proposals for directed studies to be taken in the spring semester must be submitted to the ReDOC Office by Wednesday, September 29 for consideration at the October 6 ReDOC meeting.

Dissertation Submissions

If you are planning to submit your dissertation by the October 1 deadline and would like to schedule a chapter review with the style and form consultant, please contact Mrs. Pam Cole by e-mail at pcole@nobts.edu to schedule an appointment. Please remember that your chapter review must be completed at least one month before submitting your dissertation. All paperwork for graduation can be found in the ReDOC section of the seminary Web site.

Below is a list of items needed:

- Graduation application
- Dissertation fee and order form
- UMI booklet (to be submitted with final copies)
- Dissertation Processing Notebook

ThM Graduation Applications

Students who have passed the Qualifying Exam and completed 37 semester hours of PhD work are eligible to receive the ThM degree. The deadline to apply to graduate in December with the ThM degree alone is September 15. Participation in the graduation ceremony is optional. To apply, you must come to the ReDOC office (not the Registrar's Office) to do the following:

- Complete a graduation application form
- Complete a ThM Graduation Application listing the 37 hours of PhD work that will comprise your ThM degree (both forms can be located under "Program Materials" on our Web page)
- Pay the $55 diploma fee

In addition, you will be required to pay off all account balances and library fines as you would for any graduation. However, you will not be required to return outstanding library books before the due dates indicated. Students participating in graduation should see William at the LifeWay campus bookstore to order a cap and gown.

Address Changes?

If you have changed your address, phone, or e-mail address, please inform the ReDOC Office. We are not on the seminary's PowerCampus system, so informing only the seminary will cause you to miss important communications from the ReDOC Office.
