I. NOBTS Mission Statement:

The mission is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

II. NOBTS Core Values:

The seminary's core values are: (1) doctrinal integrity, (2) spiritual vitality, (3) mission focus, (4) characteristic excellence, and (5) servant leadership. The focus of the seminary during the 2009-10 is spiritual vitality. In supporting this value, the seminary family will be encouraged to read the Bible through this year. The readings for the fall semester are attached to this syllabus. Students are encouraged to join the seminary family and participate in reading God's Word.

III. Course Description

The purpose of this course is to provide an introduction to current theological issues which affect the concept and task of evangelism and discipleship. Attention will also be given to the relevance of theological concerns in biblical discipleship and to current church growth methodologies and the sociological milieu to which they relate.

IV. Course Objectives

1. Students will understand the necessity of the relationship between evangelism, discipleship, and theology.
2. Students will identify the current theological issues which will affect their concept and strategy of evangelism and discipleship in the local church.

3. Students will critique the theological issues and current evangelistic and discipling methodologies in relationship to one another.
4. Students will study church growth principles in relationship to a theological perspective.
5. Students will be encouraged to develop evangelism and discipleship strategies for the local church which will be consistent with good theological principles.
6. Students will research the theological and philosophical epistemologies which undergird evangelism, discipleship, and healthy evangelistic church growth.

V. Course Methodology

1. Lectures— The lectures of the professor will be the beginning source of material for the course.
2. Research---Students will research theological constructs pertaining to evangelism, discipleship and healthy evangelistic church growth.
3. Discussions—There will be class discussion based on questions raised in the lectures, the assigned readings and research projects.
4. Assignments—Students will write book reviews of the five course textbooks, prepare an exegetical/word study paper, and complete a major research projects that will be presented and defended in the seminar.

VI. Course Requirements

1. Students shall complete a book review/critique of each textbook. The review should include the following elements: brief information about the author, summary of the books, strengths/weaknesses, and insights gleaned for personal theology of evangelism and discipleship (3-5pages single-spaced per each textbook).
2. Each student will present an exegetical or word study minor paper. The minor paper should consist of an exegetical study of a selected passage or semantic domain analysis of a selected word and the significance of the passage/word to evangelism and discipleship. The minor paper will need to be concluded with an outline and sermon/Bible study brief derived from the selected passage/word (10-15 pages double-spaced).

Suggested passages and topics include:

Matthew 28:16-20

Mark 16:14-20

Luke 24:36-49

John 20:19-23
