

Given only 14 weeks with ETS/SBL meetings during one of those, I'm having to make some changes....

OTHB9451 Ph.D Seminar: Amos & Hosea
Dr. Archie W. England
New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary
Fall 2021 Meeting Schedule

Mission Statement:

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and Leavell College prepare servants to walk with Christ, proclaim His truth, and fulfill His mission.

Course Purpose:

Pursuit of a Ph.D. demands rigorous research and writing skills; hence, this seminar endeavors to present students of this degree program with adequate problem-solving research issues. Though this seminar will address the context of the 8th BC prophets, as well as some selected questions about the formation of the Book of the Twelve, the primary "class-time" focus is on the text of Amos. Those interested in investigating the Book of Hosea, may do so in the final research presentations. All research for this class must meet rigorous critical scholarly standards. Though referencing classical works is appreciated, this seminar expects each student to search out the most recent critical scholarship (especially of the last ten years).

Course Description:

This seminar is designed for intensive exegetical work in the prophetic book of Amos (and Hosea), delineated by themes, genres, or canonical structure. Attention will be given to issues such as literary structure, grammatical/syntactical analysis, thematic issues, translation concerns, historical and cultural backgrounds, history of interpretation, and theology of the selected texts. .

Course Objectives:

1. The student will develop a working knowledge of the biblical text (including grammar, syntax, text-critical issues, etc.), theology, historical-critical related issues, methodology, and current status of the field of Amos studies. Focus will be placed on the biblical text.
2. The student will be able to articulate through research, writing, and oral presentation the textual, theological, and historical intricacies of the book of Amos. This will be accomplished via the submission of weekly research papers on sections of the Hebrew text of Amos. Each of the following areas require serious bibliographic research and presentation (8-10 pages, single-spaced, Times New Roman—12 TPI):
  - (a) Critical introduction and overview of the Amos/Hosea corpus, within
    - i. 8th BC
    - ii. 7th
    - iii. 6th
    - iv. 5th
    - v. a. Composition of the Book of the Twelve (2)
  - b. Canonical or alternative theories
  - vi. Topical/thematic analysis of Amos/Hosea/Jonah/Micah
  - vii. Topical/thematic analysis of Hosea

- (b) Dividing the Hebrew text into clauses on the basis of Cantillation accents and Masoretic marginal notes;
  - (c) identifying and examining all nominal and relative clauses, as well as other significant clause types;
  - (d) analysis of all conjunctions (including the waw);
  - (e) analyzing the use and impact of every verb; stem occurrence, frequency, etc., along with analyzing all infinitives, participles, and imperative clauses.
  - (f) analyzing the use and impact of prepositions, particles, or vocatives;
  - (g) developing and presenting a reasoned literary structure for the selected pericope; and
  - (h) surveying the impact of the critical apparatus and addressing five to ten translation issues (problematic translations in light of the Hebrew text).
3. Annotated Bibliography, covering all aspects of the Amos/Hosea corpus, in the light of its composition within the Book of the Twelve.
    - a. Levels of Bibliography for (History, Theology, Grammar, etc)
      - i. Local Church (2)
      - ii. Undergraduate teaching (3)
      - iii. Graduate Teaching (English/Hebrew) (3)
        - b. Academic Bibliography as the result of all class research--submitted as final exam.
  4. The student will produce roughly 35 pages, single spaced, of critical research. Each student must choose to prepare a single research paper or choose to present two presentation-style papers (ETS or SBL). Comparing/contrasting Amos and Hosea (or within the context of the Book of the Twelve), the student must interact with the grammatical/syntactical issues of the Hebrew text of Amos (or Hosea). Any paper must begin with a research question, hypothesis, and method(s) of analysis.

Course Requirements:

Required Texts: The following textbooks are to be read/referenced by all students (coinciding with weekly research):

Andersen, Francis I. Amos, Anchor Bible 39, New York: Yale University Press, 1989 (ISBN: 9780300140705).

Barton, John. The Theology of the Book of Amos. Cambridge University Press, 2012.

Carroll R., M. Daniel. The Book of Amos. In The New International Commentary on the Old Testament. Grand Rapids, MI: Eerdmans, 2020. (ISBN: 9780802825384)

Eidevall, Göran. Amos: A New Translation with Introduction and Commentary. New York: Yale University Press, 2017. (ISBN: 9780300178784)

Hasel, Gerhard F. Understanding the Book of Amos: Basic Issues in Current Interpretations.

Grand Rapids, MI: Baker, 1991. (ISBN: 9781532686481)

Möller, Karl, Prophet in Debate: The Rhetoric of Persuasion in the Book of Amos, Library of the Hebrew Bible, Sheffield: T & T Clark, 2009 (ISBN: 9780567003638).

Shepherd, Michael B. A Commentary on the Book of the Twelve: The Minor Prophets. Grand Rapids, MI: Kregel, 2018.

Recommended but not required:

Dearman, J. Andrew. The Book of Hosea. New International Commentary on the Old Testament. Grand Rapids, MI: Eerdmans, 2010.

Garrett, Duane A. Amos: A Handbook on the Hebrew Text, Waco: Baylor University Press, 2008 (ISBN: 9781932792690).

Paul, Shalom, Amos: A Commentary on the Book of Amos, Hermeneia, Philadelphia: Fortress, 1990 (ISBN: 9780800660239).

Radine, Jason, Book of Amos in Emergent Judah, Forschungen zum Alten Testament, Tübingen: Mohr Siebeck, 2010 (9783161501142).

Wolff, Hans Walter et al., Joel and Amos, Hermeneia, Philadelphia: Fortress, 1977 (ISBN: 9780800660079)

Though the above texts are required, they reflect a minimum, not a maximum, of what scholarly research should include. Hence, I teach this seminar expecting each student to read 4-5K pages from advanced grammars, syntax studies, journal articles, reference/encycopedic works, and monographs—as needed—in order to demonstrate quality research.

Prior to or during the first week of seminar meeting, each student must have submitted a translation of the BHS text of the Book of Amos. Admission to the seminar depends upon completion and submission of this pre-work. Also, each student must critically read the introductions and/or critical issues addressed in the required texts, plus the ICC: Hosea (due no later than our second meeting on 8/27).

Weekly Research Reports (Raw data and charts, etc.)

Students will divide the sections of the Hebrew text of Amos and thoroughly investigate all aspects of the Hebrew text. This includes:

- (1) Dividing the Hebrew text into clauses on the basis of Cantillation accents and Masoretic marginal notes;
- (2) identifying and examining all nominal and relative clauses, as well as other significant clause types (circumstantial, causative, conditional);
- (3) analysis of all conjunctions (especially focusing on the waw);
- (4) analyzing the use and impact of every verb (stems, frequency, etc.);
- (5) analyzing the use and impact of prepositions, particles, or vocatives;
- (6) developing and presenting a reasoned literary structure for the selected pericope; and surveying the impact the critical apparatus and addressing five to ten translation issues (problematic translations in light of the Hebrew text).
- (7)

(2) For each of five sections (1-2; 3:1-5:17; 5:18-6:14; 7-8; and 9), each student will submit and present bibliographic research (8-10 pages, single-spaced, Times New Roman—12 tpi) for the seven categories outlined above.

Graduate/Undergraduate Syllabi and Bibliography Research (as final exam):

Each seminar student will compile a thorough bibliography (minimum of three full pages) as part of the final exam for this class. Students will prepare two syllabi: one for undergraduate and one for graduate. These will be submitted as the final exam. Examples of what to include (but not limited to)...

- (1) History of the 8th BC Prophets
- (2) Theology of the 8th BC Prophets
- (3) Literature on the Books of Amos, Hosea, Jonah, and Micah.
- (4) Ancient Near Eastern Peoples, Histories, and Cultures (as background to the 8th BC Prophets)
- (5) Formation of the Book of the Twelve

Each student is responsible for gathering classical and current bibliographic data, especially from journals.

Final Research Projects:

The student will produce roughly 35 pages of single spaced, critical research. Each student must choose whether to prepare a single research paper or to prepare for presentation two 18-20 page, double-spaced papers (ETS or SBL).

Research for the above project(s) should compare and/or contrast Amos with Hosea (or any of the Book of the Twelve). The student must interact with the grammatical/syntactical issues of the Hebrew text of Amos (or Hosea or other minor prophet). Of course, any paper must begin with a research question, hypothesis, and method(s) of analysis.

For the class presentation, the student should prepare a series of slides (along with a presentation-style handout (2-3 pages)) that can be presented in approximately 25-35 minutes. The remaining time will be spent with a formal evaluation plus interaction with the class and professor.

Course Evaluation:

Translation, Attendance, and Participation.....	10%
Critical introduction and history of Amos (and the minor prophets).....
Seven Weekly reports of Hebrew Language studies .....	35%
Bibliography .....	12%

Research Project(s).....	25%
Presentation of one research project, with slides and handouts.....	10%
Graduate/Undergraduate Syllabi development (Final Exam).....	8%
