Mission Statement

The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local Church and its ministries.

Core Value Focus

The seminary has five core values: Doctrinal Integrity, Spiritual Vitality, Mission Focus, Characteristic Excellence, and Servant Leadership. The core value focus for this academic year is Doctrinal Integrity.

Curriculum Competencies

All graduates of NOBTS are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in each of the following areas: Biblical Exposition, Christian Theological Heritage, Disciple Making, Interpersonal Skills, Servant Leadership, Spiritual and Character Formation, and Worship Leadership. The curriculum competencies addressed in this course are Disciple Making and Spiritual and Character Formation.

Course Description

This colloquium is designed to direct students majoring in Evangelism in the Doctor of Philosophy program in foundational readings related generally to the field of discipleship, with concern for classical as well as contemporary methods, models, and authors. This colloquium is a resource-driven learning experience that involves the reading and discussion of selected texts. Ultimately, it serves as an opportunity to explore potential research projects and bibliography development for a dissertation.

Student Learning Outcomes

By the end of the semester students should be able to:

1. Dialogue intelligently concerning a broad range of perspectives from classical to contemporary methods and models of discipleship.
2. Value reading and dialogue as a means of life-long learning.

3. Expand their developing literature review toward the Doctor of Philosophy oral exam and dissertation development.

Textbooks and Reading Schedule

March 7

Foster, Richard J. and James Bryan Smith. Devotional Classics: Selected Readings for Individuals and Groups. Revised and expanded ed. New York: HarperCollins, 2005.

Whitney, Donald S. Spiritual Disciplines for the Christian Life. Revised and updated. Colorado Springs: NavPress, 2014.

April 4

May 2

Hull, Bill. The Complete Book of Discipleship: On Being and Making Followers of Christ. Colorado Springs: NavPress, 2006.

Book selected by the student.

Course Teaching Methodology

The course will involve the following methodologies: Reading of selected texts, written book reviews accompanied by student presentations as well as dialogue and discussion, and research for development of an annotated bibliography in the discipline.

Course Requirements

1. Students will attend all four colloquium meetings from 6:00-8:00 PM on Thursdays: Jan. 31, Mar. 7, April 4, and May 2.
2. Students will read and report on six books, preparing a three to five page double-spaced critique of each. Five of the books are required. The other book will be the student's choice from the bibliography provided. Choices will be made during the first colloquium meeting in order to insure no duplications occur.
3. Students will prepare an annotated bibliography of 15 to 20 additional significant and influential resources to be submitted May 2. Copies should be provided for all colloquium participants.
4. Students should be prepared to discuss the required books and to present each selected book to the rest of the students. Copies of reviews for personally selected texts should be available for all colloquium participants.

Evaluation of Grade

This is a Pass/Fail course. Grading will be based upon text familiarity, dialogue participation and written work. The overall assessment of the work will be from a qualitative perspective.

Course Schedule

January 31: Orientation, organization, and discovery of student familiarity with the discipline. Selections of additional texts by students.

March 7: Roundtable report on two assigned texts.

April 4: Roundtable report on two assigned texts.

May 2: 1st hour: Roundtable report on assigned text and selected text reviews; 2nd hour: Roundtable discussion of texts/resources discovered in the development of annotated bibliographies.
