Teaching Method

This course will utilize lecture, class discussion, online learning, and student teaching demonstrations.

Course Requirements

Pre-Workshop

1. Reading
Read What the Best College Teachers Do, Creating Significant Learning Experiences, The Professor's Puzzle and Teaching Unprepared Students prior to the workshop.
2. Pre-Workshop Discussion Boards (10%) Due: See Course Schedule
Participate in the assigned discussion boards for two weeks prior to the class meeting. These discussions are an essential component of the course.
 - July 15-21: What the Best College Teachers Do
 - July 22-28: Creating Significant Learning Experiences

Replying to the Professor's Post: Your comments will be graded on their substance and thoughtfulness, and should reflect appropriate application of emerging knowledge and vocabulary in the topic area. Each posting should add value to the discussion. Adding value to the discussion would include things like an example illustrating your position, posting a website, asking question of your fellow classmates, giving a personal example, bringing in something from the textbook, videos or from some outside reading to support your opinion.

Replying to the Postings of Your Classmates: In each discussion board you will post a response to one other student's response. In your replies to other students you can: 1) Expand on or clarify a point made in the answer. 2) Offer an additional argument to support a position taken in an answer. 3) Suggest ways in which an idea could be more clearly expressed. 4) Identify passages where you think the writer misunderstood a concept or applied it incorrectly. 5) Disagree with a point or position made in a response. Missed discussion boards may not be made up.

The week begins on MONDAY and ends on SUNDAY. Your initial post to the discussion board must be made by WEDNESDAY at 5:00 p.m. CST of each week. Responses to other students' posts must be made by SUNDAY at 11:59 p.m. CST. This assignment is related to Student Learning Outcome #2.

3. QQTP - Questions, Quotations & Talking Points (10%) Due: Monday, July 29
In response to The Professor's Puzzle and Teaching Unprepared Students, write a one-page paper for each text, including each of the following:
- Questions: Note the points at which a question comes to mind as you read The Professor's Puzzle and Teaching Unprepared Students. For each text, write a thoughtful question that invites analysis, synthesis, or evaluation of the material, or makes connections between the readings and previous readings.
 - Quotation: For each text, select a quotation that is especially pertinent or relevant to the main points of the readings. The quotation should be neither too short (1-2 lines), nor too long (10-12 lines). Cite the source.
 - Talking Points. Write talking points for each text that show that you have thought seriously and critically about the readings. You do not need to answer your question here, but you may talk about it if you wish. Write at least five detailed talking points, covering several different topics from the reading. A rubric for this assignment is posted on Blackboard. This assignment is related to Student Learning Outcome #1.
4. Course Name and Rationale Due: Monday, July 29

- the name of the proposed course
 - a one-paragraph rationale for the proposed course which explains why this course is needed in a course of study. Where will it fit into the overall curriculum? Does it fill in a gap? This is NOT a course description.

Course Policies

Academic Policies: Academic policies relating to absences, grading scale, final examination schedules, and other topics can be found in the current online catalog: New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary Graduate Catalog.

Absences: Absences are not permitted. You must see the Associate Dean, Research Doctoral Programs, for any exception to this policy.

Academic Honesty Policy: All graduate and undergraduate NOBTS students, whether on-campus, internet, or extension center students, are expected to adhere to the highest Christian standard of honesty and integrity when completing academic assignments for all courses in every delivery system format. The Bible provides our standard for academic integrity and honesty. This standard applies whether a student is taking tests, quizzes, exams, writing papers, completing Discussion Boards, or any other course requirement.

Assignment Formatting: Unless otherwise noted, all assignments are to be created in Turabian format. All written assignments must be Word documents, written in third person unless otherwise instructed, and created in 12 pt. Times New Roman font. PDFs will be accepted.

Assignment Grading: Assignments requiring grading will be returned to the student within a reasonable period of time. Student feedback on graded assignments will be provided through the grading rubric located in the student's Blackboard Grade Book. The student will find comments in the grading rubric, as well as on graded paper assignments.

Assignment Submission: All assignments are to be submitted to Blackboard by 11:59 p.m. of the due date unless otherwise indicated. Do not send files as attachments via email to the professor. For technical reasons, this mode of file transmission is extremely inefficient.

Cell phones: Phones must be silenced during class time. The use of a cell phone for the purposes of texting, email or other social media is not permitted. Anyone who is observed text messaging or using an electronic device during class may be asked to drop the course.

Classroom Decorum: Your participation is required for every session. You are expected to:

- Come to the sessions with a constructive point of view, prepared to interact with the readings and resources related to the course topic.
- Dress appropriately and in accordance with the NOBTS Student Handbook.
- Turn off cell phones and not accept any calls and/or text messages during class.
- Utilize laptops and other technology for class purposes only.

- Maintain confidentiality when someone shares personal information.

Grading Scale: This is a pass/fail course. You must earn a final average of 85% or more to pass.

Laptops: Laptops may be used in class only for taking notes and other activities assigned by the professor. Other activities are strictly prohibited. Laptops may not be open during presentations unless requested by the presenter. Anyone observed using a laptop in a way that violates this policy may be asked to drop the course.

Late Assignments: Late assignments will not be accepted unless an extreme situation occurs. Approval to submit a late assignment must be obtained.

Netiquette: Netiquette refers to appropriate online behavior in Blackboard or other online discussions. Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online on Discussion Boards or whenever interaction occurs through web, digital, or other electronic medium. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity is expected at all times in the online environment.

Plagiarism: NOBTS has a no tolerance policy for plagiarism. Plagiarism in certain cases may result in expulsion from the seminary. See the NOBTS Student Handbook for definition, penalties, and policies associated with plagiarism.

Recording Policy: Recordings of class, including any audio and/or video recordings, regardless of the media or format, and regardless of the intended or actual use, are not permitted without prior written permission of the professor. The class will be notified in advance should any such recording be approved. This policy is intended to protect the privacy of the students.

Revision of the Syllabus: The course syllabus is not a legal contract. Any syllabus revision will be preceded by a reasonable notice to students. The standards and requirements set forth in this syllabus may be modified at any time by the professor. Notice of such changes will be by announcement in class or by email notice.

Withdrawal from the Course: The administration has set deadlines for withdrawal. These dates and times are published in the academic calendar. Administration procedures must be followed. You are responsible to handle withdrawal requirements. A professor can't issue a withdrawal. You must do the proper paperwork to ensure that you will not receive a final grade of "F" in the course if you choose not to attend once you are enrolled.

Additional Information

Blackboard and SelfServe: You are responsible for maintaining current information regarding contact information on Blackboard and SelfServe. The professor will utilize both to communicate with the class. Blackboard and SelfServe do not share information so you must update each. Assignment grades will be posted to Blackboard.
