New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and Leavell College prepare servants to walk with Christ, proclaim His truth, and fulfill His mission.

Core Value Focus

NOBTS has five core values (rf., Graduate Catalog). The Core Value focus for 2019-2020 is Spiritual Vitality.

Course Description

This colloquium is designed to explore historic and current leadership theory and practice as applied to congregations and ministry organizations.

Student Learning Outcomes

At the conclusion of this colloquium, students will:

1. Be able to identify foundational works which have shaped the field of Christian leadership theory and practice.
2. Define Christian Leadership within the context of congregations and ministry organizations.
3. Describe the different traits, approaches and styles of Christian leadership.
4. Demonstrate acceptable knowledge of leadership theory and practice in their doctoral qualifying and oral exams.

Required Textbook

Northouse, Peter G. Leadership: Theory and Practice. Eighth Edition. Thousand Oaks, CA: Sage Publications, 2018.

Schedule of Colloquium Sessions

This colloquium will be taught in a non-traditional format. Because the colloquium will only meet four times during the semester, students should take careful note of the assignments and the corresponding due dates. Students must come on the first meeting of the colloquium and every meeting thereafter prepared to discuss the corresponding assignments. The colloquium will meet on the NOBTS Campus in the Sanders Center for Ministry Excellence Classroom. Attendance via BlueJeans Synchronous Video available for distance students.

Assignments and Evaluation Criteria

The Assignments for this colloquium will line up with assigned chapters of the Leadership: Theory and Practice textbook, which contains sixteen (16) chapters. Each chapter ends with a brief summary, followed by a list of references. Students are to read each chapter and be prepared to discuss the chapter contents in each colloquium session. The writing assignments for each chapter will involve the following:

CLSR9301 Contemporary Contextual Issues in Christian Leadership

- (1) Rewrite EACH chapter summary to fit the context of Christian leadership in a congregation or ministry organization. The new summary should incorporate language, insights, applications, principles, values, etc. compatible to Christian leadership. Each rewritten chapter summary should be at least three, but no more than five paragraphs.
- (2) Reconstruct a new reference list for EACH chapter to incorporate resources from a Christian perspective and context. Each reconstructed reference list should contain at least ten, but not more than fifteen resources.
- (3) Select any three resources from the reconstructed reference list for EACH chapter and compose a bibliographic annotation of the selected resource, at least three paragraphs in length.
